MR. JOHN GREENEWALD JR.
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

FOIPA Request No.: 1362021-000
Subject: COOPER, MILTON WILLIAM

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

Records responsive to your request were previously processed under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Enclosed is one CD containing 321 pages of previously processed documents and a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions. This release is being provided to you at no charge.

Please be advised that additional records potentially responsive to your subject may exist. If this release of previously processed material does not satisfy your information needs for the requested subject, you may request an additional search for records. Submit your request by mail or fax to – Work Process Unit, 170 Marcel Drive, Winchester, VA 22602, fax number (540) 868-4997. Please cite the FOIPA Request Number in your correspondence.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under “Contact Us.” The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@ic.fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state “Dispute Resolution Services.” Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy
Section Chief,

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

and update page

Judicial notice is hereby served by affiants upon the United States any other interested party named within. This public notice will be construed to comply with provisions necessary to establish presumed fact under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and attending State rules should interested parties fail to rebut any given allegation or matter of law addressed herein. The position will be construed as adequate to meet requirements of judicial notice, thus preserving fundamental law. Matters addressed herein, if not rebutted, will be construed to have general application. This public notice includes all information which will be found by following the links on this page and by following the links found on any page that is linked from this page. A true and correct copy of this Public Notice is on file with and available for inspection at the office of VERITAS national newspaper and at the office of Harvest Trust. This public notice addresses federal jurisdiction, federal authority, jurisdiction and authority of federal agents, the Constitutionality and lawful character of the income tax and the Internal Revenue Service, and other agencies of the United States government including but not limited to the Department of the Treasury, and legal application of the Internal Revenue Code.

Any statements or claims made by the Affiants in this public notice, properly rebutted by facts of Law, or by overriding Constitution for the United States of America, Article Three, Supreme Court rulings, shall not prejudice the Lawful validity of other claims not properly rebutted or invalidated by facts of Law.

This public notice has been published on this WebPages for more than three days which fulfills the legal requirement under the law in accordance to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and attending rules of the State of Arizona. This public notice is mirrored on three websites in addition to this website.

On July 2, 1998 Special Agent Steve Fillerup of the Federal Bureau of Investigation approached the bottom of the hill and honked his horn. He attempted to entice us to accept a document that he held in his hand. We refused the document and refused to enter into discussion with him. I told him he was out of his jurisdiction and cited the documentation and Supreme Court cases to that effect which we have in our possession. I told him to inform his traitor supervisors that, "Tell them they stepped on their dicks this time." Special Agent Fillerup replied, "I think we probably did." He got back in his blazer and drove away.

On July 1, 1998, U. S. District Court Judge Irwin (ADL) unconstitutionally and unlawfully stepped outside the jurisdiction and authority of the United States when he issued a bench warrant for the arrest of William and Annie Cooper for not appearing in "his" court on an unconstitutional and unlawful summons which was NEVER served. The United States has no jurisdiction or venue within the territorial boundaries of the State of Arizona except over land that was ceded to the United States by the by the State Legislature.

WARNING !! Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute the unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot upon discovery.

We are formed as the Constitutional and Lawful unorganized Militia of the State of Arizona and the united States of America and have made many public statements to that affect since 1990. All of these statements are on record on tapes of our lectures and broadcasts. These tapes are dispersed in the hands of Americans across the nation. By invading the Sovereign jurisdiction of the State of Arizona to attack the Citizens of the State of Arizona the United States has declared war upon the Citizens of the several States of the Union.

Therefore a STATE OF WAR exists between the Citizens of the Union States and the corporate United States.

We will be Free under Constitutional Republican government guaranteed to us by the organic Constitution for the united States of America or we will be dead. This is the land of the free and the home of the brave. We have drawn our line in the sand.

Biography of William Cooper

William Cooper was reared in an Air Force family. As a child he lived in many different countries, graduating from Yamato High School Japan. William served with the Strategic Air Command, United States Air Force. He held a secret clearance working on B-52 bombers, KC-135 refueling aircraft, and Minuteman missiles. William received his Honorable Discharge in 1965.

Fulfilling a dream previously frustrated by chronic motion sickness, William joined the United States Navy. He served aboard the submarine USS Tiru (SS-416), aboard the USS Tombigbee (AOG-11), USS Charles Berry (DE-1035), and the USS Oriskany (CVA-34).

Cooper was a member of the Office of Naval Security and Intelligence serving as a Harbor and River Patrol Boat Captain at DaNang and the Dong Ha River Security Group, Cua Viet, Republic of Vietnam. William Cooper was awarded several medals for his leadership and heroism during combat including two with "V" for Valor.

He served on the Intelligence Briefing Team for the Commander In Chief of the Pacific Fleet. William was the designated SPECAT operator in the CINCPACFLT Command Center at Makalapa Hawaii. There he held a Top Secret, Q, SI, security clearance achieving the rank of First Class Petty Officer, QM1, E-6 after only 8 years of Naval service. William Cooper received an Honorable Discharge in 1975.

William attended Long Beach City College where he picked up an Associate of Science Degree in Photography. He founded the Absolute Image Studio and Gallery of Fine Art Photography.

William held the position of Executive Director of Adelphi Business College, Pacific Coast Technical Institute, and National Technical College. Mr. Cooper was the National Marketing Coordinator for National Education and Software.

He produced several documentaries covering subjects such as the Kennedy assassination and secret black projects that have built flying disk shaped craft. William is an internationally acclaimed radio personality broadcasting the Hour Of The Time on WRMI worldwide short-wave 9.955 MHz at 8 PM eastern time Monday thru Friday nights.

William Cooper, Trustee, has founded for Harvest Trust, the CAJI News Service, VERITAS, national full size newspaper, The Intelligence Service, Harvest Publications, and has helped over 700 low power FM affiliate stations get equiped and on the air... including the station he manages, as Trustee, for the Independence Foundation Trust, 101.1 Eagar, Arizona, broadcasting to 7,000 people.

William Cooper is a world class lecturer, one of the few other than superstars, monarchs, and Popes who have appeared at Wembly in London. William Cooper is the Secretary Trustee of the Harvest Trust.

Under his leadership Harvest Trust ventured into the publishing trade. The first book under the Harvest Trust imprint was Oklahoma City: Day One by Michele Marie Moore... the definitive classic on the Oklahoma City bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building on April 19, 1995.

William is Native American, English, Scotch, and Irish. He lives in Arizona.

Authorities say Cooper never sued the IRS

nes Donahue

EAGAR — A claim by Eagar resident William Cooper that he filed a suit three years ago protesting the validity of the federal income tax has been disputed by a federal attorney. Assistant U. S. Attorney Steven Winerip, of Phoenix, said he did not know of any lawsuit filed by Cooper in Federal District Court in Arizona. "I personally don't know of such a suit. If there was one, I would expect it to come to my attention," Winerip said.

Winerip is the man in charge of reviewing arrest warrants on Cooper and his common law wife, Annie Mordhorst, for failing to file federal income tax returns in 1993 and 1994.

Mordhorst also is charged with giving false information to a bank to obtain a loan to purchase radio equipment.

Cooper and Mordhorst say they plan to resist arrest and do not expect to be taken alive.

While he has refused to be interviewed, Cooper claims in both his publication and on his internet web site that he and his wife plan to "stand and fight... with all the means at our disposal any assault, which may be mounted upon our property or persons."

He also claims he has been promised help by an area militia group, which has been "placed on standby alert for deployment should we be attacked by the government."

Winerip says he has been reading Cooper's website and is concerned about developments in Eagar.

"We are going to do everything possible to expedite the warrants without a violent confrontation," he said.

Cooper, a former Navy intelligence officer, and his wife operate what they describe as a militia information service called Harvest Trust.

The organization, which operates out of the Cooper home, involves a regular radio broadcasting station, a newspaper called "Veritas," several self-published books, and an active website on the Internet.

Cooper said last month in a story published in his newspaper that he filed suit against "the United States Government, the IRS, Attorney General Janet Reno, U.S. Attorney for the District of Arizona Janet Napolitano, and others, demanding the court simply order the defendants to either produce the documentation that allows the IRS to tax... or admit that no such documentation exists."

He said the suit has been active for almost three years "and the federal judge has refused to order the defendants to obey the law and produce their authority or admit that it does not exist."

A search of Cooper's website, however, revealed that Cooper apparently has withdrawn his law suit because of a technicality.

He wrote: "Upon discovery that U.S. District Court in Phoenix is an Article I court, we withdrew our suit against defendants for the reason that Title I courts have no jurisdiction over Citizens of the Union States. Only Article III courts, and the U.S. Supreme Court have jurisdiction in cases concerning Citizens of Union States.

"We cannot find an Article III Court existing anywhere in the United States of America," he wrote.

Winerip said there is no such thing as a Class I or Class III federal court.

He said he understands, however, that citizens like Cooper who are challenging the authority of the tax law and federal judges claim the Constitution makes a distinction between the authority granted Article I and Article III judges.

"These people just don't believe the fellows who serve as federal district judges have the authority to rule on their complaints," the assistant U.S. attorney said.

EAGAR — Residents of Eagar are quietly watching a house on the hill where federal tax resister William Cooper is waiting for federal marshals to make their move.

Nobody knows if Cooper is alone or if he is accompanied by a small army of militia members, who he now claims are committed to standing with him, their guns cocked and loaded, against any move authorities might be making.

Nobody knows how such a standoff will end, including the U. S. Attorney's office in Phoenix, which has been assigned the job of serving arrest warrants on Cooper and his common law wife, Annie Mordhorst.

"We are going to do everything possible to expedite the warrants without a violent confrontation," Stephen G. Winerip, assistant U. S.

Attorney, said Tuesday.

Winerip said he has been reading Cooper's web site and did not miss an entry on July 10 that a militia group agreed to stand with Cooper and Mordhorst during their resistance.

The statement read: "The Commanding General of the Second Continental Army of the Republic (Militia) has ordered special operations units of experienced combat veterans placed on standby alert for deployment should we be attacked by the government."

Cooper has declined to be interviewed by this newspaper. He has given permission to use information from his web site, however.

In what appears to be a daily diary of events now going on at his home, Cooper also noted that "trip flares and alarm systems (are) in place and operating."

He also wrote that a 24-hour civilian sky watch is in place so that aircraft flying within 15 miles of his home are tracked. He indicated that he has a supply of stored food and water, a generator and emergency equipment as well as other equipment stocked in the home in preparation for a lengthy siege.

Cooper declared in a publication issued last week that he and Annie are prepared "to stand and fight...with all the means at our disposal any assault, which may be mounted upon our property or persons."

He said he and his wife don't expect to win the fight but have drawn a line in the sand.

They have two young daughters in the house, who they say they will not release to authorities.

"They are not shields, as our enemies will claim," Cooper wrote. He said he feels that allowing the girls to "disappear into the immoral and destructive government child care and foster home industry" is a fate worse than death.

"If we are found dead, it will never be because we committed suicide... It will be cold blooded murder," he wrote.

Winerip said federal marshals will arrest Cooper and Mordhorst at some time, but they will attempt to do it in a peaceful way so that nobody is harmed.

He said the warrants for their arrest were issued July 1 by U. S. District Judge Stephen M. McNamee following indictments by a federal grand jury on four counts of violation of U.S. tax laws.

The indictments claim that Cooper and Mordhorst failed to file tax returns to the Internal Revenue Service in 1993 and 1994, and that Mordhorst made false statements to Frontier State Bank to secure a loan to purchase a satellite system.

The indictment said Mordhorst falsely told the bank she was employed as vice president of a company

Eagar tax protester vows to resist federal col

AGAR — An Eagar tax protester vowed to forcibly resist efforts by federal judge to have him arrested failing to appear in court on charges of not filing an income return.

William Cooper, a former Navy intelligence officer now operating what he describes as a militia information service called Harvest Trust, in a publication issued last week said he and his wife, Annie, are prepared to "stand and fight...with all means at our disposal any assault which may be mounted upon our liberty or persons."

Cooper declined to be interviewed and gave permission to use information published in both his newspaper and his web site.

The copyright story in the June of Veritas, a Harvest Trust publication, and also on his internet web page, Cooper declared the federal income tax "a criminal fraud." He said his three-year-old lawsuit against the United States government, the IRS, Attorney General Janet Reno, and U.S. Attorney for the State of Arizona has been all but ignored by federal courts.

Instead, Cooper said a federal judge issued a warrant for his arrest because he refused to answer a summons to appear in court to answer "legal fictions."

When FBI agent Steve Fillerup, of Lakeside, tried to serve the summons on June 18, Cooper said, "We told him that we are not the legal fictions named in the summons and ordered him off the property. I told him he was trespassing and that he had no federal jurisdiction or authority within the territorial boundaries of the state of Arizona."

He said Fillerup left without serving the warrant.

"Allowing our children to disappear into the immoral and destructive government child care and foster home industry run by the mind controlling bogus psychology profession only to be abused and sexually assaulted for many years is a fate worse than death, and we simply will not allow such a thing to happen to our precious little girls." Cooper said people must understand "we are not anti-government, radical, fundamentalist, crazy, suicidal or anything else we may be called."

"Since no service was made, the court can take no action if the court obeys the law," Cooper wrote.

A public relations spokesperson for the U. S. Attorney's office in Phoenix was not available Wednesday for comment.

In a lengthy document titled: "Notice, Contract, Declaration of Citizenship, Affidavit, and Demand" posted on Cooper's web page on Tuesday, he explained that the 16th Amendment, which the federal government claims gives it the right to tax its citizens, "was not properly, lawfully or constitutionally ratified by the states of the union" and is, thus, not a legal instrument.

Even if it had been ratified, Cooper argues that it does not provide for the taxing of domestic income from the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper have two daughters, Dorothy and Allyson, estimated at about seven and four years old, who, they say will remain with them to perish if there is an armed confrontation.

"They are not shields, as our enemies will claim, any more than children have been shields for families, which have been attacked by despotism throughout history," the story read.

"Allowing our children to disappear into the immoral and destructive government child care and foster home industry run by the mind controlling bogus psychology profession only to be abused and sexually assaulted for many years is a fate worse than death, and we simply will not allow such a thing to happen to our precious little girls."

Daily Update

August 9, 1998 - Uneventful - Still receiving word from People who have been interrogated by FBI Special Agent Steve Fillerup that he is, "really concerned about Cooper's children." We think it's very funny that Fillerup (and the government as a whole) were never worried about our children until our family came under threat of mass murder by the United States. Fillerup knows when they finally come to get us the children will be murdered along with Annie and I because they might grow up to be Patriot leaders. It's the old, "we did it for the children ploy." Apparently government agents are taught that the only life that is sacred is the life of a child. They are taught to use this ploy to gain support of people who cannot think for themselves but can be easily manipulated by an emotional response to children whom they are told may be in danger. All life is sacred not just the lives of children... and there are fates that children can suffer at the hands of a despotic government that are worse than death.

We LOVE our children. They are happier than most children you will ever meet. They are better educated than any child their age who attends any Public School in the nation. They have never been abused, beaten, hungry, or without shelter in their lives. I have taught them about Freedom, the great Principles and Ideals which have made their country great, and the Constitution for the United States of America for which we are fighting. Their mother comes from a People (Taiwan) and a family (Pang) that has fought socialism and communism for many decades. They have been taught by their mother the deceptions and dangers of socialism and communism. Our children are not now and never will be in danger from me or their mother.

The only danger to our children is the Nazi FBI Special Agent Fillerup and all the other little federal Nazis like him.

We (William and Annie Cooper) have been targeted for imprisonment or extermination by the federal government and the Anti Defamation League (ADL) for documenting and sourcing the truth about the tyranny and despotism of the Illuminati's coming socialist totalitarian new world order. We have worked feverishly since 1988 documenting and sourcing the facts of the treason being brought about by the Illuminati's socialist change agents in government, and through the activities of Secret Societies and organizations such as the subversive Anti Defamation League. They picked on the wrong the scandal known as "Filegate".

President Clinton ordered that all agencies of government begin an investigation naming us enemies of the administration and "domestic terrorists". Since when is telling the truth terrorism in this country?

After 14 issues of VERITAS which exposed, documented, and sourced the facts of the treason and the fraud of the so-called income tax administered by the so-called IRS, a series of 8 broadcasts exposing the Anti Defamation League as a criminal and government by the state's legislature and over only those specific crimes enumerated in the Constitution for the united States of America. There is only one exception and that is you think this is far fetched be forewarned that these people are noted in the Internal Revenue Manual as being subject to the Tax.

My research was confirmed when I found the following quote by Supreme Court Justice Fields:

"The power of the United States to tax is limited to persons, property, and business within their jurisdiction, as much as that of a state is limited to the same subjects within its jurisdiction."

Tobacco, and Firearms, or the Secret Service, nor are any of these bogus agencies listed in the United States Code as agencies of any other branch of government. These agencies are in fact fictions.

And then I discovered the reason why. The United States Supreme Court in Brushaber v. Union Pacific Railroad Company had already ruled the federal income tax VOID because Congress had unconstitutionally delegated legislative power to the Secretary of the Treasury to write the Law concerning the administrative and enforcement procedures. It was a blatant and unconstitutional breach of the separation of powers and in any case the Constitution does not grant Congress the ability to delegate its powers to anyone or anything or any entity. That is why there are so many lies and so much subterfuge involved in the administration and enforcement of the tax by the so-called Internal Revenue Service.

On September 13, 1996, William Cooper, who goes by the nickname "Bill", was contacted by telephone at (520)333-4543. This telephone appears to be subscribed to by [redacted] of [redacted] in Eagar, Arizona. [redacted]

b6

After advising Cooper of the purpose of the call, which was to elicit information on a possible association with the bombing suspect Timothy McVeigh, Cooper provided the following information:

Cooper advised that he broadcasts a radio program oriented to the American Militia Movement. He also confirmed that previously he had made use of a business called "American Voice Retrieval (AVR)" which allowed him to record and leave messages on current events that could be accessed by telephone by his listeners. Typically, these messages were one to two minutes in length.

Cooper was asked about any association he had with Timothy McVeigh. Cooper responded that he has never met McVeigh, and he is not aware of ever having spoken to him. Cooper explained that if McVeigh called his AVR number in 1993, it was only to listen to recorded messages, because the AVR system did not allow for the taking of purchase orders or leaving listener messages.

Cooper did explain, however, that in November, 1994, he received a visit at his research center in St. Johns, Arizona from two males, one of whom resembled the composite sketch of John Doe #1. Cooper said the man had short hair and an appearance like that of Timothy McVeigh, but he was definitely shorter than Timothy McVeigh.

Cooper went on to say that the man looked a lot like the first composite sketch released by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) after the bombing in Oklahoma City. Cooper then remarked that the FBI later changed the composite sketch to fit a photograph that had been taken.

While visiting with Cooper, the man who resembled McVeigh told Cooper to "watch Oklahoma." After the two men left the research center, they headed north on HWY 666 toward I-40. Cooper said the men were under surveillance, and he intimated that the interviewing Agent was aware of this surveillance.

Cooper stated that it is possible that he had a phone conversation with Timothy McVeigh without being aware of it, because Cooper receives thousands of letters and telephone calls. Cooper insisted that the man that visited him in November, 1994 and said "watch Oklahoma" is not Timothy McVeigh, the man who is presently awaiting trial concerning the bombing of the Oklahoma City federal building.

Cooper said that there are many misperceptions and lies about him and his work. Cooper stated that the news media is a "pack of liars." For example, Cooper said he has often been accused of being a white supremacist and an anti-Semite. He denied both of these charges, saying [redacted] and that he possesses some Native American blood.

b7C

Cooper also denied advocating the violent overthrow of the U.S. government. He said he served in the Armed Forces (Navy and Air Force) during the Vietnam War, and Cooper said he loved his country. He also claimed not to have any hostility or animosity to federal officers unless they are actively working to undermine the constitutional principles upon which our country was founded. Cooper denied being a hate-monger.

In explaining his opposition to violence against the government, Cooper claimed that he tried to talk the right wing activist [redacted] out of marching on Washington.

At the conclusion of the interview, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] expressed a desire to meet with Cooper personally, and Cooper encouraged him to do so in the near future.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 9/25/96

William Cooper, who goes by the nickname "Bill Cooper", was interviewed at a rest stop area just off Highway 60 within the city limits of the town of Springerville, Arizona. Cooper said he was born on May 6, 1943. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview, Cooper provided the following information:

Cooper advised that around November of 1994, he received an unannounced visit by two young men (white males) at his "research center" in St. Johns, Arizona. Cooper described these two young men as being carbon copies of two men depicted in composite sketches released by the FBI soon after the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City in April, 1995. Cooper did not recall the names of the two visiting men. (For the sake of clarification they will be referred to as John Doe One and John Doe Two in view of the fact that they closely resembled the two individuals named as such on the FBI composite sketches.)

According to Cooper, John Doe Two did virtually all of the talking, while his partner, John Doe One, was silent. John Doe Two told Cooper that they were interested in his philosophical and political messages, but they disagreed with him on his methods. Cooper elaborated, explaining that he advocates fighting the unconstitutional policies and practices of the government by any legal, non-violent means. John Doe Two suggested that more action was needed, and he asked Cooper if he would join them in their cause, although they did not articulate specifically what their cause or mission entailed. Cooper declined, and the men left soon thereafter, ending a visit of perhaps ten minutes that day.

While they walked out to their car, which Cooper could only describe as being yellow in color, John Doe Two opened the trunk and said that he wanted to give Cooper something. He proceeded to remove from the trunk a copy of the book, "The Turner Diaries" and handed it to Cooper. Cooper remarked that he already had a copy of "that racist book", but the two men left the book with him anyway.

At this point in the interview, Cooper was asked if he had retained their copy of "The Turner Diaries". Cooper responded that he already had a copy of that book, and he wasn't sure if he retained the copy left with him by the two men. Cooper further explained that when he moved his research center from St. Johns, he packed volumes and volumes of written work and books in a large number of boxes, most of which are now stacked up. Cooper said that if he looked for the copy of the book, it might take him months to find it.

After giving Cooper "The Turner Diaries", the two men got in their car and headed north on the highway toward I-40. As they were leaving, Cooper, who had been inside with the two men during the visit, noted that there were two vehicles down the road. Cooper was convinced that the two vehicles were conducting a surveillance of the men. One of the vehicles was described as a generic-looking white government motorpool vehicle. The driver was taking photographs of the men with Cooper. On the other side of the road was a brown pickup truck with a camper shell. A man, presumably the driver, was taking snapshots as if he were a tourist, but he periodically turned in the direction of Cooper's place to snap photographs of that area.

Cooper recalled that during the brief conversation with the two men that they cautioned him to "watch Oklahoma City" just before they left. Furthermore, John Doe Two asked Cooper if he knew where they could sell valuable historical documents. The man explained that he was talking about documents that might bear the signature of an important person like George Washington. Cooper responded that he had no idea where such documents could be sold.

Cooper provided a physical description of the two men. John Doe Two was the taller of the two. He was perhaps 5'10" tall to 6'0" in height, with a stocky, muscular build. He was cleanshaven and had dark hair. During the course of their visit, Cooper had noted that John Doe Two had a tattoo on his left arm, and Cooper believes that it was a fake or temporary tattoo. Cooper said that during the conversation he even mentioned to John Doe Two that he had a phony tattoo, and the man did not disagree.

John Doe Two did not appear to be Hispanic. His age seemed to be that of a man in his late twenties.

Continuation of FD-302 of WILLIAM COOPER

On 9/23/96 Page 3

John Doe One was thinner and shorter than his counterpart. Cooper estimated John Doe One's height as being between 5'8" and 5'10" tall. Cooper was insistent that John Doe One was certainly shorter than the man who has been identified as Timothy McVeigh, who is tall, perhaps 6'2" in height. John Doe One appeared to be in his early twenties.

Cooper said that both men were very polite, neatly dressed, and gave the appearance of clean cut military men who were off-duty or on leave. Both wore Levis or denim pants and short-sleeved, conservative shirts. When responding to questions, John Doe Two used polite terms such as "Yes, sir; no, sir."

After the two men left, Cooper said that he did not give them a second thought. However, about two weeks later, while broadcasting on his short wave radio program, Cooper received a call from an individual who asked him what was going on in Oklahoma. At first, Cooper responded that he had no idea, but then he recalled the visit of the two men around November of 1994, and he briefly recounted what had transpired.

At this point in the interview, Cooper was asked if he recorded his radio broadcasts. He responded that he did, and he was then asked if he would make the tape concerning that telephone call available for review by the FBI. Cooper agreed with this, but he said that it would take some time to locate that specific tape since he was unsure of the exact date or even the exact month when the visit from the two men had taken place.

Cooper was then told that if finding that tape or a copy of the book "The Turner Diaries" was simply a matter of making the time to do it, he was asked if he would permit the FBI to search for these items on his behalf. Cooper responded that he absolutely would not permit the FBI to go through his records or property. He further explained that he did not trust the FBI with his property and said that the federal government and its agents were too lacking in credibility to permit him to allow such a search. He agreed, however, that he would try and locate the tape and when found, would make the tape available to the FBI. He also indicated that he would try and find the book "The Turner Diaries".

[REDACTED]

Cooper mentioned that his group, which he called the Intelligence Service, has done an extensive investigation of what transpired in Oklahoma City and the government's actions to investigate after the bombing. Cooper stated that around October 1, 1996, he will be publishing a three-volume report on these very issues. In summarizing the results of his report, Cooper stated that in his opinion the federal building in Oklahoma City blew up because it was a government "sting" that went awry or that it was an intentional explosion to ensure that the anti-terrorism bill would be passed by Congress and that the federal government would be given additional law enforcement powers in order to form a police state.

Cooper said that he moved his research center and intelligence service out of St. Johns about six months ago. He said the move was precipitated by a conflict that he had with one [REDACTED]

Cooper stated that he conducted a detailed and thorough background check on anyone who worked for his intelligence service. He also required that his intelligence service associates take an oath to support and defend the Constitution of the State of Arizona and the Constitution of the United States. Cooper said that thus far he has had good results with his associates with the exception of two, [REDACTED] and Ron Peterson. According to Cooper, Peterson was an ex-police officer out of New York State and initially gave the appearance of being a very competent associate. Eventually, Peterson let his supposed power go to his head, and Cooper had to discharge him. Allegedly, Peterson has since been charged with a bank robbery in New York.

b6

Cooper began his first radio broadcast in May, 1992. At first, he broadcast through Radio Station WWCN in Nashville, Tennessee. He performed broadcasts five nights a week. Since then, Cooper has terminated his association with WWCN.

Presently, Cooper sends out his radio broadcasts by satellite which are then picked up by over 600 FM stations around the country. Cooper also publishes a political newspaper called "The Cadgy News" (phonetic). Cooper stated that he has published a book entitled, "Behold a Pale Horse", which has sold well among militia members and people of like minds. Cooper said he still receives royalties from sales of that book, even though he has done nothing to advertise the book.

Cooper advised that when he was a young man he served in the Navy, but left disillusioned with the policy decisions of the Senior Admiral for whom he worked. He gave as an example the fact that he handled communications concerning sensitive matters such as the bombing of Laos, Cambodia, and North Vietnam at a time when the president of the United States was disavowing any such actions. After leaving the Navy, Cooper stated that he also served in the Air Force.

At the conclusion of the interview, Cooper, without prompting, said that he believed that he was the subject of Federal Grand Jury deliberations in Phoenix. When asked about the nature of the deliberations, Cooper responded that he has not paid his taxes nor filed income tax returns. Cooper explained that the income tax was an unconstitutional and illegal revenue, and that the income tax amendment to the Constitution was never properly ratified. Cooper said that as a young man he was willing to fight and die for his country even though he later learned that the war in Vietnam had nothing to do with the national interests of the United States. Cooper stated that at this point in his life he is more than willing to fight, and if necessary, die for matters that really count in his country.

Our Intelligence Operatives in the state of Florida have information that a member of the Lee County Militia [redacted] is actively attempting to recruit personnel to bomb a Federal building. He has stated on several occasions that he belongs to an organization that will pay $30,000 to any group who will blow up a Federal building.

[redacted] was apparently recruited by a terrorist organization in January 1997 while attending a meeting of the so-called 3rd Continental Congress. This unknown terrorist organization, according to our information, is offering large sums of money to militias and militia members if they will participate in the bombing of a Federal building.

According to our operatives all members of the Lee County Militia have refused to be recruited by [redacted]. Our operatives tell us that [redacted] has been expelled from the Lee County Militia for these activities.

This communication is made in the interest of preventing damage to property and loss of lives.

POSSIBLE CONSPIRACY TO BOMB
FEDERAL BUILDING;
AT-DT

Synopsis: To advise of possible conspiracy.

Enclosures: Enclosed for FBIHQ and Tampa are copies of a letter recently received at the Lakeside RA of the Phoenix Division.

Details: On 4/10/97 William Cooper sent a letter to the Lakeside RA in which he mentions the activities of [REDACTED], a former member of the Lee County Militia in Florida. Allegedly, [REDACTED] belongs to a terrorist organization that is attempting to recruit members to blow up a federal building.

b6

By way of background, William Cooper, who resides in a rural area of eastern Arizona, is well known in the militia movement throughout the nation. Cooper is a radio broadcast personality whose programming is oriented to militia members and disaffected right wingers. His radio program has been carried across the nation by short wave radio and other transmission link-ups. Cooper publishes a newsletter called "Veritas", and he is the Director of the "Intelligence Service" of the "Second Continental Army of the Republic". Cooper boasts of having intelligence operatives throughout the nation.

Lest these claims be taken lightly, it should be noted that a former associate of Cooper's, Ronald Eric Petersen, was the "Station Chief" of Cooper's Intelligence Service in the state of New York. Cooper eventually fired Petersen because he kept exceeding his authority and alienating Cooper's intelligence operatives in New York. Eventually, Petersen was killed by the Buffalo Division's SWAT team in August 1996 as he prepared to carry out a bank robbery. He was a suspect in nine bank robberies in New York State. (91A-AL-40396 and [REDACTED])

Cooper is exceedingly distrustful of the federal government in general and the FBI and BATF in particular. Thus, his recent letter comes as a great surprise to the Lakeside Resident Agent (SA [redacted]), who in recent months spoke with Cooper on several occasions and attempted without apparent success to cultivate a cooperative relationship.

b6
b7C

In a letter written to SA [redacted] in January 1997, Cooper accused the Resident Agent and the Bureau of being "engaged in treason against the United States of America" and of being "Nazi, jack-booted thugs." Cooper believes that Timothy McVeigh is a "fall guy" in the plot to bomb the federal building in Oklahoma City. He asserts that government agents placed and detonated the fatal bomb.

b6
b7C

Following a telephone conversation with Cooper in February 1997, SA [redacted] advised Phoenix management that he was breaking off all contact with Cooper. During that final phone conversation, Cooper was agitated and angry, and he screamed epithets, accusing the Resident Agent and the FBI of being liars, traitors, and of never having read the constitution. His language during this tirade was profane and "colorful".

b6
b7C

Phoenix cannot vouch for the reliability of the information provided in Cooper's recent letter, nor can Cooper's motives be accurately predicted. In previous conversations, the Lakeside Resident Agent emphasized to Cooper the importance of coming forward should he become aware of dangerous, violent individuals conspiring within militia circles.

It should be noted that while Cooper's hostility for the FBI and federal government runs deep, he claims to oppose the use of violence to overthrow the government. Also he is adamant about rejecting the racist litanies of the white supremacists and neo-Nazis.

Follow up action and investigation concerning Cooper's allegations are left to the discretion of Tampa. According to FOIMS, [redacted] Tuten is the subject a Tampa investigation: [redacted]

I've enclosed some documents concerning the present federal stand-off with the accused tax evader, Bill Cooper. Recently, I've interviewed a few of his associates, and you may find their observations interesting.

Over the past two or three weeks, things have been very quiet in Eagar, AZ, Cooper's home, or perhaps it just appears so because I haven't been doing anything with this situation. While I can certainly be accused of being passive, this passive approach is part of our existing strategy of letting Cooper stew in his own juice.

Please call me if you have any questions...

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: To open new case.

Preliminary Inquiry Initiated: 06/29/1998, set to expire 09/29/1998.

Details: William Cooper, a resident of Eagar, Arizona, is a right wing "patriot", who is nationally known in the militia movement for his controversial broadcasts by means of short wave radio. Cooper was interviewed a couple of times during the fall of 1997 by the Lakeside Resident Agent (SA [redacted]) because he had made allegations pertaining to Tim McVeigh and the bombing of the Oklahoma City federal building in 1995.

On 6/19/98 a US Deputy Marshal, [redacted] attempted to serve a criminal summons on Cooper, but Cooper refused to accept the summons, and he ordered [redacted] off his land. The summons was issued as a result of an IRS tax evasion case against Cooper, for which he has been indicted. It is extremely unlikely that Cooper will show up in federal district court in Phoenix as required on July 1. Indeed, Cooper seems to be relishing the role he has created for himself in defying the IRS and federal government. He has written a long explanation entitled "Cooper family targeted by Feds", which has been released on the Internet.

[redacted] Since the unsuccessful attempt to serve Cooper, SA [redacted] has been communicating with several agencies concerning the situation, mostly to "educate" them about Cooper's political beliefs and the risks involved if he is to be arrested. Most importantly, the US Marshals Service is now aware of Cooper's profile, something they did not know when the summons was issued.

While the US Marshals will probably end up with the unpleasant task of apprehending Cooper, SA [redacted] and the Phoenix Division will most likely be involved in one way or another. Therefore, it is recommended a preliminary inquiry be opened.

Cooper family targeted by Feds

(Under Construction)

Please be patient and check back often.

We (William and Annie Cooper) have been targeted for imprisonment or extermination by the federal government and the Anti Defamation League (ADL) for documenting and sourcing the truth about the tyranny and despotism of the Illuminati's coming socialist totalitarian new world order. We have worked feverishly since 1988 documenting and sourcing the facts of the treason being brought about by the Illuminati's socialist change agents in government, and through the activities of Secret Societies and organizations such as the subversive Anti Defamation League. They picked on the wrong People. We are not afraid. We will not run and hide. We will continue to oppose evil whenever and wherever we find it. We will stand and fight whomever or whatever assault they may mount against us.

I first learned of the treason taking place in this country (and around the world) when I discovered the plan named "MAJESTYTWELVE" while a member of the Intelligence Briefing Team and Petty officer of the watch in the command center of Admiral Bernard Clarey who at that time was the Commander in Chief of the Pacific Fleet. The plan outlined the implementation of all of the planks of the Communist Manifesto which began with the graduated so-called Income Tax administered by the fiction known as the Internal Revenue Service, the disarmament of the American People through laws instigated by a series of "terrorist" acts, the formation of a world police force made up of the United Nations force known as NATO combined with the military forces of the United States and the members of the United Nations force known as the "Warsaw Pact" which plan is outlined in State Department Publication 7277. It documented the intent to demonize and target Patriots and so-called "tax protestors" through "Project Trojan Horse"... and much much more.

We have been documenting and sourcing the facts of this plan since 1988 through my book "Behold A Pale Horse", my radio broadcast "Hour Of The Time," in our full size national newspaper "VERITAS", "Oklahoma City: Day One," and in lectures and speaking engagements throughout the nation and the world. I have made over 150 predictions of coming major world events since 1988 based upon the above information supplemented by many years of research and have only been wrong once.

The Illuminati socialist President of the United States of America, William Jefferson Clinton, wrote in a White House memo that, "William Cooper is the most dangerous radio host in America." The Illuminati's Rush Limbaugh read the memo on his so-called Excellence In Broadcasting Network in 1995 following the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma in an cowardly effort to redirect the socialist attack on so-called "right wing" radio hosts away from himself and onto me while touting himself as "the most dangerous radio host in America."

My FBI record, which was initiated by the investigation required by my Secret security clearance while in the U.S. Air Force, and my Top Secret Q (SI) security clearance while in the U.S. Navy, was one of those found in possession of the White House during the scandal known as "Filegate". President Clinton ordered that all agencies of government begin an investigation naming us enemies of the administration and "domestic terrorists". Since when is telling the truth terrorism in this country?

After 14 issues of VERITAS which exposed, documented, and sourced the facts of the treason and the fraud of the so-called income tax administered by the so-called IRS, a series of 8 broadcasts exposing the Anti Defamation League as a criminal and subversive organization, and our publication of the scathing expose "Oklahoma City: Day One" by Michele Marie Moore, the government and the ADL ordered their puppets to go after us with the intent of shutting us up for good. U.S. Attorney Janet Reno, the butcher of Waco, ordered the Nazi Gestapo to go after us which immediately launched investigations by the FBI, IRS, Financial Crimes Network, and many others. Reno also ordered her Phoenix based puppet U.S. Attorney Janet Napolitano to shut us up. Our investigation demonstrates that Janet Reno, Phoenix based United States Attorney Janet Napolitano, Assistant United States Attorney Winerip and Special Agent Frank Shupnik, and possibly Judge Irwin are members of the ADL. Shupnik and Winrip have been the most persistent and subversive of the Law in their relentless persecution of this family.

When the government began its investigation (persecution) of this family we began a series of Freedom Of Information Requests (FOIA) which, along with our and other's legal research, revealed that they had no authority whatsoever to conduct such an investigation. In fact it once again confirmed that the federal government has no authority or federal jurisdiction within the territorial boundaries of any state of the union whatsoever except on property purchased by the government where jurisdiction has been ceded to the federal government by the state's legislature and over only those specific crimes enumerated in the Constitution for the united States of America. There is only one exception and that is extraterritorial jurisdiction brought about by treaties with foreign nations such as the Crown of England. We are not citizens of any foreign government. We are not subjects of the Crown of England or Great Britain. We are not subjects of the Queen of England or Great Britain. If you think this is far fetched be forewarned that these people are noted in the Internal Revenue Manual as being subject to the Tax.

My research was confirmed when I found the following quote by Supreme Court Justice Fields:

"The power of the United States to tax is limited to persons, property, and business within their jurisdiction, as much as that of a state is limited to the same subjects within its jurisdiction."

Years ago I discovered that the Internal Revenue Service is NOT an agency of the Department of the Treasury or the federal government. It is not listed as required by law in the United States Code under the organization of the Department of the Treasury nor is the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, or the Secret Service, nor are any of these bogus agencies listed in the United States Code as agencies of any other branch of government. These agencies are in fact fictions.

And then I discovered the reason why. The United States Supreme Court in Brushaber v. Union Pacific Railroad Company had already ruled the federal income tax VOID because Congress had unconstitutionally delegated legislative power to the Secretary of the Treasury to write the Law concerning the administrative and enforcement procedures. It was a blatant and unconstitutional breach of the separation of powers and in any case the Constitution does not grant Congress the ability to delegate its powers to anyone or anything or any entity. That is why there are so many lies and so much subterfuge involved in the administration and enforcement of the tax by the so-called Internal Revenue Service.

We published several stories revealing the results of our research into the history of, and the Law concerning, the IRS. We also published a lawful "Public Notice" in issues #14, 15, and 16 of VERITAS national newspaper which enumerated certain facts discovered in Dan Meador's and my research. The law allows us to presume the content of the Public Notice to be "presumed facts" since neither IRS or the United States government has ever denied any of the facts thus presented.

In light of the above we filed FOIA requests asking the IRS for specific documents which specifically require us to file and pay the so-called income tax... they could not and did not produce any such documentation but sent me a copy of an old 1040 which I had filed before I mustered the guts to stop filing based upon the information I had seen in MAJESTYTWELVE and from my research which verified that the tax is a criminal fraud. The implication was that the 1040s which I had filed in the past was their only authority. In other words I had signed the form stating that I was a "taxpayer". The interpretation of the IRS was that since I had filed previously it was an admission that I was required to file. Hitler would have loved their reasoning.

We also filed FOIA requests asking the IRS for specific documents which gave the IRS the authority to conduct an investigation of a Citizen of Arizona. The IRS could not, and did not, produce any such documentation. We noticed Special Agent Shupnik and Assistant U.S. Attorney Winerip to produce their credentials and documentation of their authority to conduct such an investigation... they refused because they could not as no such documents exists.

We learned of an secret agreement between the individual states of the union and the IRS. We obtained an unredacted copy and found that it is an agreement granting jurisdiction to the IRS to require federal employees who are state Citizens and residents of the states to file and pay the so-called federal income tax. No cession of jurisdiction over these people was granted by the state legislature as required by Law. If the so-called Internal Revenue Service has the jurisdiction and authority to family targeted by Feds

<http://harvest-trust.org/targeted.htm>

require Citizens and residents of the states to file and pay the so-called income tax why do they have to have an special secret agreement between the IRS and the states to tax their federal employees who live and work outside the jurisdiction and authority of the United States government?

We filed suit against the United States government, the IRS, Attorney General Janet Reno, U.S. Attorney for the District of Arizona Janet Napolitano, and others, demanding the court simply order the defendants to either produce the documentation that allows the IRS to tax and/or investigate a Citizen of any state of the union or admit that no such documentation exists, and several other points of Law. The suit has been active for almost three years and the federal judge has refused to order the defendants to obey the law and produce their authority or admit that it does not exist. The attorney for defendants, Katz (another ADL member) has slipped up and admitted in documents that he/she filed in this case that no such documentation (thus no such authority) exists in the Phoenix District. This suit is still awaiting adjudication in United States District Court in Phoenix, Arizona. The government and the ADL wants us in prison or dead before the judge is forced to rule in our favor as he must if he obeys the Law. Recent experience tells us that the courts have been corrupted and the law is frequently ignored. Pro Se litigants are all but ignored by federal judges who pass the cases to clerks to handle.

We have not committed any crime; but on June 18, 1998 a United States Marshall came to the Trust Headquarters in Eagar, Arizona to serve a summons for criminal trial in U.S. District Court in Phoenix Arizona on "legal fictions". We told him that we are not the legal fictions named in the summons and ordered him off the Trust property. I told him he was trespassing and that he had no federal jurisdiction or authority within the territorial boundaries of the state of Arizona. He knew I was right and obeyed me without serving the papers. If he had authority and/or jurisdiction why did he not serve the papers and why did he obey my order that he get off Trust property immediately?

Since no service was made the Court can take no action if the Court obeys the Law. As we discovered with Waco, Ruby Ridge, and other federal atrocities the federal Courts seldom obey the Law. The Marshall told me that if we did not appear in federal Court in Phoenix, Arizona on July 1, 1998 a warrant will be issued for our arrest. We will not appear as the court has no jurisdiction or authority over us as Citizens of Arizona and we will not allow an arrest to occur. We will stand and fight their Gestapo with all the means at our disposal any assault which may be mounted upon our property or persons.

Our children will remain with us. They are not shields, as our enemies will claim, any more than children have been shields for families which have been attacked by despotism throughout history. Allowing our children to disappear into the immoral and destructive government child care and foster home industry run by the mind controlling bogus Psychology profession only to be abused and sexually assaulted for many years is a fate worse than death, and we simply will not allow such a thing to happen to our precious little girls.

These people are morally bankrupt and in fact are Nazi jack booted thugs of the worst SS Hitler storm trooper type. They have no ethics, morals, or respect for life, property, religion, or the Law. The Nazis were socialists and socialists are Nazis. Socialists are in complete control of the government of the united States of America today.

Please remember that we are not anti-government, radical, fundamentalist, crazy, suicidal, or anything else we may be called. We are intelligent law abiding reasonable People who have drawn our line in the sand. Our enemy will attempt to demonize us in order to obtain the public's permission to murder our whole family just as they did the Weaver family and the Branch Davidians at Waco, Texas. I never thought I would hear so-called Christians whose ancestors fled the old world to escape religious persecution say, "The Branch Davidians deserved what they got... they were just a bunch of religious fanatics," but I heard so-called Christians say it over and over and over again.

We are not criminals or child molesters, or bank robbers, or child abusers, or wife beaters, or husband beaters, or any other label that may be applied. If we are found dead it will never be because we committed suicide... it will be cold blooded murder... just as they have done in the past... just as they did at Ruby Ridge, The World Trade Center, Waco, and Oklahoma City.

We are pro-government, lawful government, lawful Constitutional Republican government as guaranteed to us in the Constitution for the United States of America. We know what the government is and what it is not. We know that the Constitution for the united States of America constitutes the lawful government and anything or anyone outside its strictures, limits, and powers is operating unlawfully and are in fact outlaws.

We know that the Constitution was not penned by a bunch of dottering old men who did not understand the complexities of the modern age over two hundred years ago. The Constitution was produced by the greatest collection of geniuses who have ever lived. It is the LIVING Supreme Law of our country. It provides within the document itself the provisions for us to make any changes that we may deem necessary. Only a very few changes (Amendments) have ever been made. Those changes or deletions wished for by the socialist/communist Illuminati have been rejected by the American People. That last fact necessitates the demonization of the Constitution and all who support it.

I have served my government all my life. I have been a member of the United States Air Force and the United States Navy. I am a combat veteran of the Vietnam war. I fought as a River Patrol Boat Captain in Vietnam earning medals with the "V" for Valor. I took an Oath to, "support and defend the Constitution for the united States of America against all enemies foreign and DOMESTIC." I intent to fulfill that Oath until the day I die... and after, if that is possible.

What we have included here is by no means the entirety of our legal position. It is barely the beginning, only a few facts and questions that should get you thinking. We will attempt to include much more through links from our WebPages.

We hope to win this battle although the odds and history tell us that we won't. If we win then all America wins... if we lose the subversive Illuminati socialists in government and the ADL will LOSE big time. We are not afraid. I have engaged and fought better troops than any of the techno-spoiled brats they can or will ever field against us. In any case whatever happens we as a family will be Free... and due to the sheer volume of our work that is in public hands we will never be forgotten. It makes me very sad to know that all of you will still be enslaved by tyrants and despotism in a totalitarian socialist new world odor (really stinks)... unless you also draw your line and take your stand to fight the last battle for Liberty and Freedom.

Oh... I almost forgot. If they need a negotiator to resolve the situation send Lieutenant Colonel James "Bo" Gritz... I would love to see him coming up the hill to talk us down. Please... oh please... send Gritz.

Please pray for us and keep coming back to our WebPages <http://harvest-trust.org/targeted.htm>. We will keep it updated adding information, documenting, and sourcing our position within the Law, and the corrupted Illuminati puppets despotic and tyrannical disregard and contempt for the Law. Who knows... you may even become awakened and join the fight for Liberty and Freedom for all People regardless of race, religion, or place of ancestral origin.

Cooper Family Targeted by Feds

Update Page

Today July 1, 1998, U. S. District Court Judge Irwin (ADL) issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Bill and Annie Cooper for not appearing in "his" court on a summons which was NEVER served. The United States has no jurisdiction or venue within the territorial boundaries of the State of Arizona except over land that was ceded to the United States by the by the Legislature of the State of Arizona.

WARNING !! Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute the unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot on sight.

We are, and have always been, formed as the Constitutional and lawful unorganized Militia of the State of Arizona. We will be Free under the Constitutional Republican government guaranteed to us by the Constitution for the united States of America or we will be dead. We have drawn our line in the sand. Cross it at your own risk.

Sources within local "policing agencies" have informed us that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been put on notice by several ranking local law enforcement personnel that. "We will absolutely not allow another 'Rut-Rid' Waco' to occur in Apache County, Arizona " Glenn Jacobs, owner.

Militiaman refuses to recognize warrant

By Jerry Kammer
The Arizona Republic

An eastern Arizona militiaman is vowing to defy an arrest warrant issued in Phoenix on Wednesday after he failed to appear in federal court on charges that he evaded income taxes and defrauded a bank.

William Cooper, 54, a media-savvy foe of the federal government who claims to belong to the "Second Continental Army of the Republic," posted a defiant message in big red letters Thursday on his Internet site:

"WARNING!! Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute the unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants will be met with armed resistance."

Federal authorities in Phoenix are responding with calculated calm to Cooper, who warned a 1994 convention in Mesa of a coming battle against one-world government.

"Blood will be spilled in the streets of America — it's inevitable," Cooper declared then, even as he stressed that he didn't endorse violence. He has broadcast the same message around the world in his daily short-wave radio program. He also publishes a newspaper.

The U.S. attorney for Arizona, José de Jesus Rivera, said federal agents would move carefully to arrest Cooper, who faces a four-count indictment on charges that he failed to pay taxes from 1992 to 1994 and submitted false information to a bank to obtain a loan.

"We are going to proceed with prudence and caution and handle the matter in due course," Rivera said, declining to comment further.

Apache County Sheriff Art Lee said he has advised federal authorities to move cautiously against Cooper, who lives in a hilltop house in Eagar.

After talking with Cooper, Lee said, he cautioned federal authorities that "it could deteriorate into an incident" if they moved in to arrest Cooper and his wife, Annie Mordhorst, who was indicted on the same charges.

"I felt like he meant what he said when he told me he would defend his property with everything at his disposal," Lee said.

The sheriff said Cooper owns weapons, but he did not know how many or what kind.

Lee said Cooper moved to Eagar two or three years ago from St. Johns, where he had once spoken of opening a library where residents could research the U.S. Constitution. Militia members believe that the federal government has flagrantly usurped the Constitution by asserting a range of powers, including the power to tax.

"He sent me a lot of literature when he lived in St. Johns," Lee said. "It was the regular right-wing stuff — militia-type literature on the black, unmarked helicopters and the takeover of the United States by United Nations forces."

Asked whether Cooper had a broad following in the county, Lee said, "Not that I'm aware."

One sympathizer is Glenn Jacobs, publisher of a small weekly newspaper, who said he spoke to Cooper early this week.

"He told me he is not going to submit to arrest by the feds," Jacobs said. "He said if they're going to murder him, they're going to have to do it in the house, that this is where he has drawn his line in the sand, and he's not going to retreat from it. I think he is expecting to be murdered by the FBI."

Lee disputed Cooper's Web site report that "several ranking local law-enforcement personnel" had informed the FBI that they would "absolutely not allow another Ruby Ridge or Waco to occur in Apache County, Arizona."

Lee said, however, that both Cooper and Jacobs had spoken of Ruby Ridge and Waco, scenes of bloody confrontations that in the militia movement have become symbolic of federal government brutality and arbitrary power.

In Phoenix, Tom Nixon of the U.S. Marshal's Office said authorities intend to act cautiously as they enforce the arrest warrant "because no federal agency wants any copies of Ruby Ridge or Waco."

But Nixon added, "Obviously, at some point, we'll effect the arrest."

Nixon said a federal marshal last month was unable to serve a summons on Cooper. He said the marshal visited Cooper's home but was unable to establish that the man who met him there was Cooper.

Reached by phone Thursday, Cooper refused to answer questions, responding to a reporter's inquiry with a stream of obscenities before hanging up.

In his Web site, however, he calls the summons "that the marshal attempted to serve 'unconstitutional' and 'unlawful.'" He said the federal government has no jurisdiction in Arizona "except over land that was ceded to the United States by the State Legislature."

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: To describe activities underway in Arizona to bring captioned fugitives to justice.

Previous Title: Title marked "Changed" to reflect the fact that Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] have both been charged with tax evasion by the federal district court in Arizona. Title previously carried as: "WILLIAM COOPER; AOT-DT."

Preliminary Inquiry Initiated: 06/29/1998, set to expire 09/29/1998.

Details: On 7/01/1998 federal bench warrants were issued for Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] refused to appear in district court in Phoenix in response to charges of income tax evasion. A Deputy U.S. Marshal had attempted to serve Cooper with a summons on 06/19/1998, but Cooper threw the Deputy Marshal off his property without receiving the summons.

Bill Cooper, a resident of the small eastern Arizona town of Eagar, is nationally known among militia members and other right wing zealots. Cooper hosts a talk show by means of short wave radio, and he frequently condemns the federal government, Justice Department, and the FBI for the "atrocities" at Waco and Ruby Ridge. He is convinced there is a government-sponsored socialist conspiracy to establish a "new world order."

Re: [redacted] 07/02/1998

Cooper is a prolific writer on the Internet, and much information about him and his beliefs can be accessed at his website: www.harvest-trust.org. Cooper has written defiantly on the Internet of the bench warrant issued in Phoenix and of his intention to go to war with the federal government. An example of his statements includes: "Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute the unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot on sight."

b7C

On 7/01/1998 a meeting was held in Phoenix to coordinate federal enforcement efforts to bring Cooper and [redacted] to justice. Among those attending were ASAC Ray Churay of the Phoenix Division; Criminal Chief Tom Hannis; Deputy Criminal Chief Mary Murguia, AUSAs [redacted] of the U.S. Attorney's Office (USAO), District of Arizona; Chief Deputy Tom Nixon, U.S. Marshals Service (USMS); Supervisory Deputy [redacted] and Acting Supervisory Deputy [redacted] of the USMS; and Chief of Criminal Investigations James B. Collie of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

A consensus was reached that there would be no immediate action taken to arrest Cooper and [redacted]. It should be noted that Cooper has brought one or more armed militia "soldiers or bodyguards" to his home in Eagar, and Cooper seems to be spoiling for a fight. A local reporter who attempted to contact Cooper shortly after this initial summons service attempt was made, advised USM Chief Deputy [redacted] that when he visited the Cooper residence, the house was surrounded by five pick-up trucks with several men holding rifles in the truck beds. In a recent conversation with the Lakeside Resident Agent (SA [redacted]), Cooper said he was at war with the federal government, and "he has drawn a line in the sand."

b7C

Given this mind set and the fact that Cooper's house sits on a high ridge overlooking a quiet residential area, the participants in the meeting concluded there is no hurry to effect an arrest. The USAO stated that federal agents "could wait for a year and half, if necessary." Another factor to consider is the presence of Cooper's [redacted]. The USMS, which ordinarily would be responsible for executing the warrants, has requested a joint FBI/IRS/USMS approach to the problem.

The present strategy for dealing with Cooper is to not initiate any overt or provocative action, including surveillance, for some time, perhaps two or three months. Not only will this give Cooper time "to cool off," but it will probably discourage his bodyguards and supporters who may tire of sitting around with nothing to do. In the meantime, the Phoenix Division will be gathering intelligence on Cooper and his residence. Special Agent (SA) [] attempted to speak with Bill Cooper at his residence on a hilltop on the east side of the town of Eagar, Arizona. At approximately 11:00 a.m., SA [] drove his government vehicle up the road leading to Cooper's residence, and in doing so, SA [] rolled down the windows to make himself more visible and honked the horn to give warning to the occupants of Cooper's residence. About halfway up the long driveway, SA [] noticed an individual (male) who had emerged from the house, SA [] got out of the vehicle and asked if he could talk to Bill Cooper. The man responded that he couldn't.

b7C

At this point, SA [] realized that he was probably speaking to Bill Cooper, who is a tall white male and wears glasses. The man believed to be Cooper was wearing a dark solid gray shirt and dark slacks. Cooper's hair is brown, medium length, and thinning somewhat on top. Cooper appears to be about 50 years of age and is heavyset.

b6

Emerging at Cooper's side and slightly towards his back was a young white male, perhaps [] who had []

b6

Once SA [] realized he was probably speaking to Bill Cooper, the Agent referred to the man on the hill as Bill, and the man did not correct him. Bill Cooper proceeded to warn the Agent that he was trespassing and "out of his jurisdiction." Cooper stated that federal authorities had no jurisdiction on his land, and he plainly said that if any federal agent approached his property again they would be shot. He also demanded that SA [] convey this information to his superiors. The Agent told Cooper that he had no desire to engage Cooper in a fight, even if Cooper seeks one. Cooper told SA [] to go back and talk to his "snot-nosed superiors" and tell them that he will not submit to federal authority. The Agent then encouraged Cooper to call him if he had any questions or if he thought the Agent could help along the situation in any way.

b6

Cooper responded that the only people he will talk to are Sheriff Art Lee (of Apache County) or []

As SA [REDACTED] prepared to head back to his vehicle, Cooper yelled out, "You guys have really stepped on your dicks this time." Cooper also mentioned that a lot more people were coming, giving the impression that he had other supporters who would rally to his aid. SA [REDACTED] then got into his vehicle and backed down Cooper's long driveway, leaving the area without further incident.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

Synopsis: To set lead to Quantico (NCAVC).

Preliminary Inquiry Initiated: 06/29/1998, set to expire 09/29/1998.

Enclosures: Enclosed for Quantico (NCAVC) are various documents providing background information on captioned subjects.

Details: On 07/01/1998, bench warrants were issued in Phoenix for Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] refused to appear in federal district court in response to charges of income tax evasion. A Deputy U.S. Marshal attempted to serve Cooper with a summons on 06/19/1998, but Cooper ordered the deputy marshal off his property without accepting the summons. (It should be noted that the deputy marshal had no idea concerning Cooper's background, and the deputy marshal most assuredly would have handled the situation differently if the IRS case agent, who knows quite a bit about Cooper, had passed on some of his knowledge.)

Bill Cooper, a resident of the small eastern Arizona town of Eagar, is nationally known among militia members and other right-wing zealots. Cooper hosts a talk show by means of short-wave radio, and he frequently condemns the federal government, the Justice Department, and the FBI for the

"atrocities" at Waco and Ruby Ridge. Cooper also publishes a newsletter entitled, "Veritas." Among other things, he proclaims there is a government-sponsored socialist conspiracy to establish a New World Order.

Cooper is a prolific writer on the Internet, and much information about him and his beliefs can be accessed at his Website: www.harvest-trust.org. Cooper has written defiantly on the Internet of the bench warrants issued in Phoenix and of his intention to go to war with the federal government. An example of his statements includes: "Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute these unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot on sight."

The Phoenix Division, in concert with the U.S. Attorney's Office, U.S. Marshal's Service, and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), has determined that no immediate action will be taken to arrest Cooper and [REDACTED]. It should be noted that Cooper has brought one or more armed militia "soldiers" or "bodyguards" to his home in Eagar, and Cooper seems to be spoiling for a fight. In a brief conversation with the Lakeside Resident Agent (SA [REDACTED]) recently, Cooper said that he was at war with the federal government, and he "has drawn a line in the sand."

Given this mindset and the fact that Cooper's house sits on a high ridge overlooking a quiet residential area in the town of Eagar, Phoenix has concluded there is no hurry to effect an arrest. The U.S. Attorney's Office stated that federal agents "could wait for a year and a half, if necessary." Another factor to consider is the presence of Cooper's [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] Cooper has written that he will not use [REDACTED] his family as a shield, but in fact he seems to be doing precisely that.

The present strategy for dealing with Cooper is to not initiate any overt or provocative action in the town of Eagar, including surveillance, for some time, perhaps 2 or 3 months. Not only will this give Cooper time to cool off, but it will probably discourage his bodyguards and supporters, who may tire of sitting around with nothing to do. In the meantime, the Phoenix Division will be gathering intelligence on Cooper and his residence. SA [REDACTED] (Lakeside RA), who is personally acquainted with Cooper, will coordinate with state and local law enforcement agencies and the relevant federal agencies (IRS, U.S. Marshal) to try to bring about a peaceful resolution to this matter.

QUANTICO (FBI ACADEMY)

AT NCAVC

Will review enclosed materials and also Cooper's Website (www.harvest-trust.org) and will provide Phoenix with a psychological assessment of Cooper, and if feasible, of [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Of particular interest to Phoenix is guidance on how to deal with Cooper given his stated intentions to kill any federal agent attempting to execute the arrest warrants.

Phoenix specifically desires an opinion as to whether or not [REDACTED] comes into town and is not accompanied [REDACTED] (Phoenix has great concerns about Cooper's emotional stability if [REDACTED] [REDACTED] while he remains on guard in his hilltop residence. For the time being, Phoenix has decided not to apprehend [REDACTED] even if [REDACTED] and enters town.) Phoenix also seeks an opinion about whether arresting Cooper's bodyguards in town on harboring or related charges would help or hinder a successful resolution of this problem.

Dear Sheriff Lee:

It was good talking with you over the past weekend. You will recall that we discussed the alleged Internal Revenue Service Warrants mentioned in a July 3, 1998, front page Arizona Republic Newspaper article. This article also mentioned Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper of Eagar, Arizona.

As I mentioned, I am one of the [redacted] for America Publications of [redacted] Arizona. The story I am writing pertains to the above allegations. At this time, this situation involving the Cooper family looks very similar to other IRS ATTACKS against people throughout America who dare to question IRS procedures and IRS lawfulness. Mr. Cooper is well known as a high profile critic of injustice, who would like all Americans, including the IRS, to responsibly abide by the law.

b7C

It is my early opinion that Mr. Cooper and [redacted] have been UNLAWFULLY TARGETED by the federal government and possibly others.

b6
b7C

You and I discussed the importance of jurisdictional authority. You, being the top lawman in your county, establishes that authority over ANY and ALL other law enforcement, from local police to federal agents. It is my concern that these jurisdictional lines are about to be stepped over and abused by the IRS and possibly other federal agencies.

Enclosed are several recent documents released by America Publications which will, no doubt, shed serious light on my concerns.

Please feel free to contact me at any future date. My intentions in this matter are toward a peaceful and Lawful resolve.

Very truly yours

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] at Lakeside, Arizona on July 19, 1998:

SA [redacted] received a telephone call from the mayor of the town of Eagar, Arizona, Sandra Burke, whose telephone number is (520)333-4691. Her home address is [redacted] Eagar, Arizona 85925. Mayor Burke called because of a statement that Bill Cooper made on his Internet Website. Allegedly, Cooper refers to Burke's [redacted] as a "Nazi." This angered Burke quite a bit. Burke's [redacted] of Eagar.

b6

Mayor Burke also advised that she received a telephone call from an individual identifying himself as [redacted] representing American Publications, which allegedly has a nationwide circulation. Apparently, [redacted] tried to persuade Burke to go visit Bill Cooper, but the mayor said that she has no intention of doing so, and she doesn't want to make herself a possible hostage at Cooper's house.

b6
b7C

[redacted] gave Mayor Burke his address: [redacted]
[redacted] He provided his telephone number as [redacted]

b6
b7C

Mayor Burke said that she is quite concerned about the situation involving Bill Cooper, whom she believes is a threat to the town's police officers and also to the greater community. She remarked that [redacted] a resident of Eagar, has been trying to persuade her to support Bill Cooper. Burke, who is a member of the [redacted] believes that [redacted] who is also LDS, has been misled by Bill Cooper's philosophies and ideologies.

b6

Following the phone conversation with Mayor Burke, SA [redacted] called the phone number of American Publications, (602)949-9129. A male answered the phone and said he was a volunteer with American Publications, but when he began to ask detailed questions of the caller, SA [redacted] hung up the phone.

Later in the morning, SA [redacted] telephoned [redacted] who is a resident of Eagar and [redacted] cellular telephone number is [redacted] and his work telephone number is [redacted] was asked about his association with Bill Cooper, for whom an arrest warrant has been issued in federal district court. [redacted] responded that he has listened to Bill Cooper and met him some years ago, but [redacted] explained that he has had no personal contact with Cooper for some years. [redacted] stated that he is aware of the current situation in which Cooper is resisting arrest by federal authorities.

b6

It should be noted that [redacted] who was agreeable enough at first when contacted by telephone, became agitated as he was asked questions regarding his association with Cooper and what he thought of Cooper's philosophies.

After this phone conversation with [redacted] SA [redacted] called the Court Clerk's Office of the Federal District Court of Arizona (Phoenix) to determine if Bill Cooper had filed a civil suit against the Department of Justice (DOJ) or Internal Revenue Service (IRS). SA [redacted] spoke to a clerk named [redacted] who looked in the database and found listings for Milton William Cooper and [redacted] but she explained that these listings were for the pending criminal case against [redacted]. She could find no entries regarding a civil filing. Later, [redacted] checked by hand any filings which might have been made in Phoenix since July 1st, but she said that she could find none for Bill Cooper [redacted].

[redacted] explained that in order to file a valid civil suit in federal court, the plaintiff must pay a filing fee of $150.00 and prepare a complaint to initiate the case. Filing packets are available in the Office of the Court Clerk.

Last Saturday, [redacted] called Bill Cooper and advised him that he would probably be meeting with Special Agent (SA) [redacted] the following week. [redacted] then asked Cooper if there was anything he wanted conveyed to the Agent, and Cooper told [redacted] that he should tell the Agent that the FBI "really stepped on their dicks." Cooper made other statements which caused [redacted] some concern and made him feel that not only was Cooper willing to die for his principles, but he was willing to take his family with him.

[REDACTED] thinks that Cooper is quite serious about resisting by force, if necessary, the federal government if an attempt is made to execute the warrants issued against him and [REDACTED] for tax evasion. [REDACTED] said that Cooper could conceivably call up 500 or 600 militia volunteers to give support if Cooper feels he is being attacked. When [REDACTED] talked to Cooper by telephone last Saturday, Cooper made some statements which caused [REDACTED] grave concerns. [REDACTED] was asked if he could think of any circumstances which might induce Cooper to submit to federal authority and present himself in court. SA [REDACTED] asked if Cooper might be willing to appear in court if the bench warrants are suspended so that Cooper can show up voluntarily. [REDACTED] responded that since Cooper has already rejected a court summons, he doubts that Cooper would now voluntarily go to court.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] on July 21, 1998:

SA [redacted] contacted Sheriff Art Lee of the Apache County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) in St. Johns, Arizona. Sheriff Lee indicated that he had recently received a phone call from a man named [redacted] who wanted the Sheriff to speak with Bill Cooper, who has been accused of federal income tax evasion. Based on his conversation with [redacted] Sheriff Lee said it appears that [redacted] has strong right-wing beliefs. [redacted] told Sheriff Lee that he wants to see if there is a way to deal with the situation without anyone being hurt or killed.

Sheriff Lee said that he did call Bill Cooper and ask him about alternatives for resolving the standoff with the federal government peacefully. Cooper did not offer any openings, and Sheriff Lee concluded from the conversation that there are no good short term solutions for dealing with Bill Cooper's resistance to federal authority. SA [redacted] asked Sheriff Lee to call [redacted] and request that [redacted] call SA [redacted]

b7C

SA [redacted] told Sheriff Lee that yesterday he had spoken with [redacted] and that [redacted] had painted a very pessimistic picture concerning the likelihood of Bill Cooper surrendering peacefully. Instead, the Sheriff was told that Cooper had made statements to suggest that he was willing to resist to the death.

b6
b7D

Sheriff Lee indicated that he planned to contact Scott Garms, the police chief of the town of Eagar, Arizona, to advise him to be careful in exposing himself to Cooper. Sheriff Lee mentioned this because Cooper is upset with Garms for his cooperation with the FBI.

Following the conversation with Sheriff Lee, SA [redacted] stopped at the residence of [redacted] which lies a few miles to the south of [redacted]. [redacted] was not at home, but [redacted] answered the door, and SA [redacted] asked her if she or her husband had any affiliation with Bill Cooper. [redacted] explained that neither of them was acquainted with Cooper, although they knew something about the situation because of newspaper reports. SA [redacted] explained that he was trying to locate associates of Cooper to determine if there is a way to peacefully resolve the situation. [redacted] responded that neither she nor her husband were in a position to offer suggestions.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]
[redacted] at Lakeside, Arizona:

b6
b7C

During the early morning of [redacted] SA [redacted] received a call from Officer [redacted] of the Eagar Police Department. [redacted] advised that he had just been called by [redacted] (PROTECT IDENTITY) of [redacted] [redacted] had explained how he had been asked to go to the residence of Bill Cooper that night. When [redacted] arrived at the Cooper residence, he observed that there was a lot of hostility and tension between Bill [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

After this conversation with Officer [redacted] SA [redacted] called the Eagar police chief, Scott Garms, who pretty much repeated the same account on the Coopers as just given by Officer [redacted] Garms explained that he did not intend to send officers up to Cooper's house to investigate as such a response might provoke Cooper into an act of deadly violence.
Furthermore, if the local police responded, [redacted]
[redacted] SA
[redacted] told Chief Garms that he completely concurred with this reasoning.

b6
b7C
b7D

On the morning of [redacted] SA [redacted] called [redacted] at this home. [redacted] confirmed that he [redacted] had gone to Cooper's house last night after [redacted] had received a call from [redacted]
[redacted] stated that he had listened to Cooper's radio broadcast earlier that night, and Bill didn't sound like he was well. Thus, [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] concerning Bill. [redacted] even feared that Cooper may have suffered a heart attack. [redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

Upon arriving at the Cooper's house, [redacted] immediately noticed that in was like a "free for all". Cooper was yelling at [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] and Cooper told [redacted] should pack up and go.
[redacted]

b6

[redacted]
[redacted] and he encouraged [redacted] leave the home for the night. [redacted] who was inside listening, responded by saying that [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] b7E

[redacted] stayed at the Cooper's place for about ten minutes. He felt very uncomfortable being involved [redacted] and he plainly expressed this feeling [redacted] believes that the Cooper's are feeling the stress and tension of isolating themselves since the federal warrants were issued.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] could provide no further descriptive information on [redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

When he [redacted] arrived at Cooper's house late that night, [redacted] drove up without incident even though he doesn't believe Bill was expecting him to come. [redacted] noticed no defensive measures taken regarding the arrival of his car.

b6
b7D

SA [redacted] asked [redacted] if he knew of [redacted] present whereabouts. He said he did not and he denied that [redacted] had come to his home that night. [redacted] said he has no intention of returning to the Cooper's home again. He said he lost a lot of respect for Bill based on what he saw last night. [redacted] stated, however, that he would serve as [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

SA [redacted] told [redacted] he would like an opportunity to talk to [redacted] even if the conversation is by phone. If [redacted] distrusts the agent, [redacted] should call from a pay phone. The point is to establish a dialogue with [redacted] said he would convey this message if he has an opportunity, but he doubts that [redacted] will contact him again. Furthermore, [redacted] will talk to SA [redacted] under any circumstances.

b6
b7D

On the morning of 9/11 SA [redacted] called Chief Garms again and learned that [redacted] had watched a white Bronco leave the Cooper's house earlier that morning. [redacted] went to the local Super 8 Motel, but [redacted] didn't get a room, probably because it was too late to get a desk manager to check [redacted] After leaving the Super 8, [redacted] headed west on Highway 60 towards Show Low. [redacted] could not tell if [redacted] Garms noted that [redacted] home lies in that direction. As of the afternoon of 9/11, Chief Garms could not tell if [redacted] had returned to [redacted] Eagar.

Synopsis: To request technical assistance from Squad 20.

Details: On 9/28/98 a meeting was held at the US Attorney's Office in Phoenix concerning the fugitive status of Bill Cooper and [redacted]. Both have been indicted by IRS on federal tax evasion charges. Cooper has vowed to shoot any federal agents who attempt to arrest him.

b6
b7C

Attending this meeting were high level representatives of the US Marshals Service, IRS, US Attorney's Office, and ASAC Ray Churay of the Phoenix Division. Participants were updated on the status of Bill Cooper, who appears to have come out into town recently, an event not anticipated this soon in his self-imposed exile at his hilltop home in the town of Eagar.

During the meeting it was determined that more intelligence was needed on Cooper's activities, but the time was not yet right for deploying a team to conduct surveillance or to arrest him. Instead, it was determined that the Phoenix Division would examine the feasibility of using technical means to monitor Cooper's activities.

Another inter-agency planning meeting will held in the future after more intelligence on Cooper's activities has been gathered and assessed. On 9/29/98 SA [redacted] contacted SA [redacted] in Lakeside and scheduled a site survey to be conducted in Eagar on October 6 and 7.

On 10/19/98 SSA [REDACTED] of NCAVC and SA [REDACTED] the Phoenix case agent, conversed by phone about the possibility of arranging for meetings in Arizona to better understand the situation with Bill Cooper and [REDACTED]. Phoenix suggests that SSA [REDACTED] travel to Arizona during the first week of November.

b6

Details: By way of background, several months ago Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] were indicted in Arizona for income tax evasion, and bench warrants were issued for them on July 1, 1998. Cooper, who is well known among members of the nation's militia groups, has stated that he will kill any federal agents who attempt to apprehend him. He has also said that he would rather have his family die than be subject to federal tyranny. In effect, Cooper has barricaded himself and his family in their residence, which lies in the middle of the quiet town of Eagar, Arizona.

While the apprehension of Cooper is the responsibility of the US Marshals Service (USMS) and the tax investigation has been conducted by IRS, the Phoenix Division has been coordinating with both agencies in the event the Bureau is needed to provide a

If SSA [redacted] comes to Arizona, it will be with the purpose of surveying the situation to get more insight into Cooper and the rural area in which he lives. Dear

I am requesting the assistance of Navapache Electric Cooperative, Inc. in connection with an official investigation being conducted by our agency in the area of Round Valley.

In order to further an FBI investigation your assistance is being requested in the area of Round Valley regarding the availability of electric power of 110 volts for the operation of equipment and the use of power poles for the installation of that equipment.

This installation will most likely take place in mid-November.

If you have any questions concerning this request, please contact [redacted] Lakeside, AZ or [redacted] at [redacted] Phoenix, AZ.

I appreciate your efforts in this matter.

Very truly yours,

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]
[redacted] at Lakeside, Arizona:

On 11/16/98 [redacted] (PROTECT IDENTITY), an employee of the [redacted] store in Eagar, called the Lakeside Resident Agency and left a voice mail message for SA [redacted]. In this message, [redacted] advised that [redacted]

b6

[redacted] did not see [redacted] Bill Cooper.

On 11/17/98 [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU) called from Houston and left a voice mail message for SA [redacted] advised that the night before he listened to Bill Cooper's nightly short wave radio broadcast. Cooper was upset about an incident in which an Eagar city [redacted] had dared to drive up the road which leads to his residence. Allegedly, Cooper said that if he can take on the federal government, he can most certainly handle the town of Eagar. Cooper also mentioned an incident with a dog, but [redacted] provided no further details.

b6
b7C

After reviewing [redacted] message, SA [redacted] called the Eagar police chief Scott Garms who confirmed that Cooper did have an altercation with [redacted]. Apparently, [redacted] and he drove up to check on [redacted]. Last night [redacted] called Chief [redacted] and explained what happened when he drove up the road leading to Cooper's house.

b6
b7C

[redacted] told Chief Garms that when he drove up the hill, he saw Cooper's [redacted]. Then a Rottweiler ran out to [redacted] truck. [redacted] told him to roll up his windows because their dog is a "trained killer dog". Then Cooper drove out in his truck and started swearing at [redacted]. [redacted] explained that he owned property nearby and that he was a [redacted] but this had no effect on Cooper, and it these statements probably provoked him all the more. [redacted] was very upset about the confrontation with Cooper.

On 11/18/98 [redacted] LNU of Houston called SA [redacted] again and confirmed that he had spoken to [redacted] about his confrontation with Cooper. [redacted] also said that Cooper has cut back his radio program to one hour in length because of interference from a Voice of America short wave broadcast emanating from Africa.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] at Lakeside, Arizona on November 13, 1998:

SA [redacted] received a call from [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU), who resides in Houston, Texas. David (LNU) advised that Bill Cooper is cutting back his nightly radio program from two hours to one hour in length. This radio program is aired by shortwave radio Monday through Thursday night. Apparently, Cooper is cutting back on hours because the U.S. government is sponsoring a Voice of America (VOA) shortwave radio program originating in Africa, and this program shares the signal with the shortwave station by which Cooper broadcasts his program. As a result, the powerful VOA broadcast tends to jam Cooper's program. [redacted] (LNU) suggested that the U.S. government add an additional hour on the front end of the VOA program which would effectively terminate Bill Cooper's nightly broadcasts.)

At the present time, Bill Cooper is broadcasting on the following band: 74.15. Previously his program was aired on a shortwave station called WWCR, with a frequency of 2380. [redacted] (LNU) explained that lower frequency numbers work best for night broadcasting, while the higher frequencies work better in the day.

[redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU) called Special Agent (SA) [redacted] at the Lakeside Resident Agency and provided the following information:

[redacted] (LNU) said that he was calling with regard to Bill Cooper, the federal fugitive and tax protester, who lives in Eagar, Arizona. [redacted] (LNU) advised that Cooper is involved in illegal broadcasting by means of shortwave radio, and Cooper presently is broadcasting from a shortwave station using the call sign WBCQ. [redacted] (LNU) mentioned that he has been delighted recently to find that Voice of America (VOA), which broadcasts by shortwave from Africa, has been on the same shortwave signal used by Cooper's station, and as a result, Cooper has had difficulties in broadcasting by shortwave radio recently.

b6
b7C

Up until recently, Cooper has been able to afford broadcast times by means of sponsors. For example, two of his sponsors, [redacted] who were affiliated with a firm called the [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] In order to pay for this time, Cooper has been very aggressive about advertising during his radio program, which has been reduced to two hours a night.

[redacted] (LNU), who frequently monitors Cooper's radio program, said that a mild sounding man named [redacted] has emerged as the principal salesman on Cooper's radio program. In describing [redacted] on a recent radio program, Cooper said, "There should be more people like [redacted] He is very loyal." Unfortunately for Cooper, however, [redacted] (LNU) said that [redacted] is a terrible salesman. Perhaps this is why Cooper recently threatened to shut down his radio program unless his listeners start sending in more money.

b6
b7C

[redacted] (LNU) also monitors Bill Cooper's Website, and [redacted] (LNU) said that on or about October 24, 1998, Cooper made reference on his Website to the California Militia, which had brought him some "unspecified device." This information was soon withdrawn from Cooper's Website, leading [redacted] (LNU) to believe that the California Militia had instructed Cooper to remove this entry from the Website.

b6

About two weeks ago during this radio program, Cooper stated that he was planning to go somewhere, perhaps to a conference, but then he told his listeners that he had canceled the trip. The reason he gave for canceling his trip was because he didn't want to be stopped by a local police officer and thus forced to shoot the officer because of Cooper's fugitive status.

[redacted] 34 b7E

Cooper also said on a recent broadcast that he was thinking of employing remote controlled planes mounted with cameras in order to conduct photo surveillance of the area around his house. (Presumably, Cooper is worried about federal agents sneaking up to apprehend him.)

According to [redacted] (LNU), Cooper has had a running feud over the Internet with a man named [redacted] (phonetic), who is from [redacted]. Apparently, [redacted] writes demeaning things about Cooper on the Internet, and Cooper is not amused by these comments. In fact, Cooper offered a reward for anyone who could provide him with [redacted] address and telephone number.

SA [redacted] received a call from [redacted] LNU (last name unknown) who lives in Houston, Texas. [redacted] has called before, and he has declined to provide his last name or his telephone number). During this phone call, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] played a recording of an excerpt of a radio broadcast made by Bill Cooper in which Cooper states that the Marxists and Communists in the government are destroying the country, and it is the duty of Militia to bring them to justice.

b7C

[redacted] advised that currently Cooper is broadcasting on a local FM Channel, 101.5, and Cooper is probably not licensed to do so with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Cooper's radio program has recently been reduced from a three hours, five nights a week format, to a program running four times a week for only two hours. Allegedly, Cooper has said that unless he gets more donations and support, he will be cutting back the program to one hour nightly.

b6
b7C

[redacted] said that he listened to Cooper's shortwave broadcast on October 21, 1998, and Cooper's [redacted] came on the air. Furthermore, a man who calls himself [redacted] has been broadcasting on Cooper's program since September.

b6

[redacted] describes [redacted] as having a meek or mild voice. Lately, [redacted] has been selling equipment such as a shortwave radio sets. On the radio program, Cooper and [redacted] have instructed individuals to send their money to [redacted] Eagar, Arizona. b6

[redacted] advised that there is another radical radio broadcaster whose name is "Brother" Stare (PH). Brother Stare broadcasts out of Walterborough, South Carolina. According to [redacted] Brother Stare is extremely radical, and he advocates violence. Brother Stare's success on shortwave may have spawned other programs such as the one currently being aired by Bill Cooper.

Synopsis: To set leads for interviews.

Administrative: The purpose of the leads set forth below is to interview two siblings of the fugitive, Bill Cooper. To facilitate this interview, Phoenix has attached a checklist of General Assessment Questions which has been prepared at Quantico by the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC), formerly referred to as the Behavioral Science Unit. The enclosed questionnaire is quite lengthy, and it may not be feasible for the interviewing Agents to utilize the questionnaire if Cooper's siblings are uncooperative or if they have had little contact with Cooper in recent years. The interviewing Agents are encouraged to use discretion to gain as much insight into Cooper's personality, philosophies and mindset as possible, with or without use of the questionnaire as a guide.

Enclosures: An 11-page questionnaire prepared at Quantico entitled, "General Assessment Questions."

Details: On 07/01/1998, federal bench warrants were issued for Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] refused to appear in District Court in Phoenix in response to charges of Income Tax Evasion. On 06/19/1998, a Deputy U.S. Marshall attempted to serve Cooper with a summons, but Cooper threw the Deputy Marshall off his property without receiving the summons.

Bill Cooper, a resident of the small eastern town of Eagar, Arizona, is nationally known among militia members and other right-wing zealists. Cooper hosts a talk show by means of short-wave radio, and he frequently condemns the federal government and especially the FBI for the "atrocities" at Waco and Ruby Ridge. Cooper is convinced that there is a government-sponsored socialist conspiracy to establish a "New World Order."

Cooper is a prolific writer on the Internet, and much information about him and his beliefs can be accessed at his Website: www.harvest-trust.org. Cooper has written defiantly on the Internet of the bench warrants issued in Phoenix and of his intent to go to war with the federal government. An example of the statements include, "Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute these unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot on sight."

While it is primarily the responsibility of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and U.S. Marshal's Service (USMS) to apprehend Cooper [REDACTED] and bring them before a federal judge, FBI assistance has been requested in peacefully resolving this situation. Since the bench warrants were issued in July, 1998, Cooper and his family have effectively barricaded themselves in their home which sits in the middle of the town of Eagar. It should be noted that Cooper's home sits on a high ridge overlooking a quiet residential area, and the prospects of initiating any sort of tactical seige in the community will be avoided.

The U.S. Attorney's Office has made it clear that even if convicted, Cooper is not likely to spend more than a year or two in jail. Because of this and the fact that Cooper is, for all intents and purposes, using [REDACTED] as human shields, the involved federal agencies have decided not to initiate any overt or provocative action. Essentially, federal authorities have resolved to wait until Cooper eventually cools down, grows weary of his self-imposed captivity, and comes out into the community where he can be apprehended at minimal risk to himself and others.

Soon after the bench warrants were issued for Cooper and [REDACTED] the Phoenix Division set out a lead to the National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC) at Quantico to request a Behavioral Assessment and advice on how to proceed in bringing Cooper and [REDACTED] to justice. While two Agents from NCAVC have traveled to Arizona and briefly visited the community of Eagar, NCAVC is unable to prepare a proper behavioral assessment without further information on the subject. Since little is known about Cooper's background, NCAVC recommended that some of Cooper's family members or siblings be contacted for information. This is the reason for setting forth the leads described below.

Synopsis: To set lead to obtain military records.

Details: On 07/01/98 federal bench warrants were issued for Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] as they had failed to respond to a summons concerning their recent indictments on charges of income tax evasion. Since then, Cooper has vowed to shoot any federal agent who attempts to apprehend him or [REDACTED]. His threats are not being taken lightly since Cooper is known to be well armed, and his home is something of a fortress in that it is located on a prominent ridge overlooking the small Arizona town of Eagar.

Cooper is nationally known in the American militia movement. He runs a nightly talk show by means of short wave radio, and his radio program can be categorized as extremely right wing and anti-government in tone. He also publishes a newsletter called VERITAS, and he maintains an Internet website at www.harvest-trust.org.

Federal agencies responsible for bringing Cooper to justice, which include the US Marshals Service, IRS, and the FBI, have adopted a strategy of ignoring Cooper for the time being since he seems eager to engage in a "Ruby Ridge-like siege". The three agencies have jointly decided not to give him the fight he wants. Instead, the strategy is to wait until Cooper relaxes and becomes more vulnerable to apprehension when he is away from his home.

After Cooper's fugitive status was explained to the [redacted] they replied that they were not at all surprised. [redacted] stated that Cooper considers himself to be a "patriot", and had aligned himself with extreme right wing organizations. Subsequently, Cooper became more and more difficult to deal with and eventually, the [redacted] ceased all contact with Cooper.

[redacted] explained that the last time they saw Milton Cooper and his immediate family was about five years ago when the [redacted] At that time, Cooper continually attempted to engage them in debate or conversation about various conspiracy theories. He said that Cooper has the ability to hold someone's attention when he speaks and suspects that Cooper does very well as a radio talk show host. Cooper is knowledgeable about many subjects and could probably speak well on any of them, unfortunately he has focused his efforts on extremist views. The one problem for Cooper is that when he speaks or has an opinion on a subject, he cannot tolerate dissension or disagreement with him. He will become argumentative and irrational, thereby becoming very unpleasant company.

The IPC held a second conference at the [redacted] According to [redacted] approximately 60 people attended the conference sponsored by Bill Cooper and IPC. [redacted] described the people attending the conference as being friendly and not rowdy.

[redacted] mentioned that after the first visit of IPC to his ranch, he found out that Bill Cooper had done a short wave radio broadcast from his property. [redacted] did not like the fact that Cooper had made the broadcast from the [redacted] and he told Cooper that he didn't appreciate it and that he didn't want it to happen again.

b6
b7C

[redacted] explained that Cooper had concerns about his security, and as a result he asked that [redacted] close off the gates and entrances leading into [redacted] something which [redacted] refused to do, explaining to Cooper that [redacted] was his home and he wanted to make it readily available to his friends and neighbors.

b6
b7C

Despite these minor differences of Cooper, [redacted] found that Cooper and [redacted] were nice, and he noted that the people attending the conference helped clean up the ranch before their departure. Cooper's [redacted] took horseback riding lessons while she stayed at the ranch.

b6
b7C

[redacted] described [redacted] as "boisterous." [redacted] also mentioned that Cooper drank enough alcohol that it caused [redacted] a little bit of concern about Cooper's stability.

b6
b7C

During the course of this conversation, SA [redacted] advised [redacted] that Cooper is now a federal fugitive, having refused to comply with a summons to appear before a federal court with regard to an indictment on Income Tax Evasion charges.

SA [redacted] received a collect telephone call from [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU) who was calling from a pay phone in Houston. [redacted] LNU said that a few weeks ago he heard a short-wave radio broadcast by Bill Cooper in which Cooper said that he had had contact with Tim McVeigh and another individual named [redacted] before the bombing of Oklahoma City building. Allegedly, Cooper told his radio listeners that McVeigh and Michael were planning to carry out some sort of action, but they did not tell Cooper what their exact intentions were.

Since making this broadcast, Cooper has made statements about establishing his own television station. Furthermore, he has been asking his listeners to send more money, and if they will not, Cooper said he will cut back on his radio programming.

According to [redacted] LNU, Cooper hardly ever mentions his [redacted] on his radio broadcast. However, Cooper has mentioned that [redacted]

SA [redacted] received a return phone call from Scott Garms, the Police Chief in the town of Eagar, Arizona. Chief Garms confirmed that there have been at least two confrontations between Bill Cooper and local citizens near Bill Cooper's property, which sits on a ridge overlooking the town of Eagar. The first confrontation involved [redacted] a few months ago.

The second confrontation took place when [redacted] went up to the ridge to videotape the surrounding community, and there [redacted] was confronted by Bill Cooper, who turned out armed with a handgun. Details of this confrontation were provided separately by Chief Garms in an Eagar Police Department Report.

Chief Garms advised that he has heard rumors that there have been other confrontations between Cooper and individuals visiting the ridge where Cooper lives, but the chief does not have the names of the individuals who may have encountered Bill Cooper near his home. Garms said he heard one rumor regarding a woman who went to the ridge was "targeted" by a red laser dot, presumably originating from the electronic sight of some sort of firearm. Unfortunately, Chief Garms does not have the name of the woman who allegedly had this experience.

Chief Garms indicated that Bill Cooper's bodyguard, who goes by the name [redacted] recently filed a police report on behalf of the [redacted] for which he works. In the course of filing the complaint, [redacted] listed personal information which would further identify him, but at the time of the telephone conversation, the chief did not have this information available. He said that once he receives the identifying information he will make it available to the FBI.

FUGITIVE INVESTIGATION FOR

*Drop - not opping
JLCA, Fug matter*

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: To change classification of captioned investigation. CD

Previous Title: Title marked "Changed" to reflect the re-classification of this investigation from an AOT-DT matter to one involving a fugitive investigation for other federal agencies.

Details: Captioned investigation was opened in July, 1998, after federal bench warrants were issued for Bill Cooper and [redacted] for failing to appear in federal district court in response to IRS indictments regarding income tax evasion. Bill Cooper is well known in American militia circles, and he broadcasts a radio program nationwide by means of short-wave radio. Cooper also publishes a considerable amount of material on his Internet web-site.

b6
b7C

Prior to his indictment on tax charges, Cooper had been interviewed previously by SA [redacted] concerning the Oklahoma City bombing case and also with regard to Cooper's association with an individual who was ultimately slain in a shootout with the Albany Division SWAT team a couple of years ago. Based on his rhetoric and published statements, it is apparent that Cooper despises the federal government generally, and the FBI, IRS, and ATF in particular. Since the federal warrants were issued, Cooper has vowed to shoot any federal agent who attempts to apprehend him or approach his property.

Re: 62E-PX-NEW, 04/01/1999

[redacted] Sqd 16

Initially, captioned investigation was opened as a [redacted] case (DT matter). The assumption made by SA [redacted] at the time was that a serious problem was brewing, and the FBI was likely to be involved in the apprehension of Cooper, one way or another, even though the warrant was secured by IRS. While this assumption is still valid, SA [redacted] believes it is inappropriate to maintain this investigation as a DT matter. (This opinion is shared by the Bureau agents who reviewed this case file during the Phoenix Division's recent inspection.)

b6
b7E

While Cooper's comments and rhetoric about the federal government are anything but flattering, there is no hard evidence to indicate that Cooper is planning terrorist acts or attempting to use violent means to overthrow the government. Cooper's apparent crimes are to avoid federal taxes and to resist arrest by federal authorities. In view of the situation, it is recommended this case be reclassified as a fugitive investigation in support of other federal agencies, namely the IRS and the US Marshals Service.

Undoubtedly, the U.S. Attorney's Office, the U.S. Marshals, and the IRS desire continued FBI assistance in trying to resolve this matter. Moreover, SA [redacted] is the only federal agent assigned in the White Mountains on a permanent basis, and so the burden has effectively fallen on him to gather intelligence about Cooper from local sources around Cooper's residence in the town of Eagar, Arizona.

b7C

It should be noted that on 03/26/1999, a meeting was held in Phoenix at the U.S. Attorney's Office to discuss the present situation with Bill Cooper. Besides AUSA [redacted] [redacted] the meeting was attended by representatives of IRS and the U.S. Marshals. No one from the Phoenix Division was present, and SA [redacted] was out of state at the time. At any rate, SA [redacted] was later advised that the participants in this meeting expressed a desire to continue the present intelligence gathering measures, including [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7E

[redacted] of the U.S. Marshals has advised SA [redacted] that his agency is highly unlikely to authorize an arrest of Cooper by means of a raid or ruse on or near Cooper's property in the town of Eagar.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] at Eagar, Arizona, on March 5, 1999:

b6

SA [redacted] met with [redacted] [redacted] Also present was the [redacted] and a friend of [redacted] During the interview, [redacted] explained how he came to have contact with Bill Cooper, an accused tax evader and federal fugitive.

[redacted] advised that on December 23, he and [redacted] took a drive so they could videotape the area around Round Valley (Eagar and Springerville) prior to taking a trip back to [redacted] home in Illinois where the remainder of his family lives. At the advice of a local resident, [redacted] drove up Hillcrest Drive to the top of a ridge which overlooks the Round Valley community. Soon after he arrived at the top, [redacted] heard a voice which cried out, "Get that camera out of here!"

b6
b7C

Shortly thereafter, a large blue pickup truck quickly rolled up to the place where [redacted] had parked his vehicle. At the time, [redacted]

b6
b7C

The man inside the truck, who was Bill Cooper, said to [redacted] "I'd appreciate your erasing the tape." While the man was not screaming, he clearly sounded tense. Cooper's truck came to rest very close to [redacted] vehicle, and [redacted] could see the seat of the pickup truck that Cooper was in. On the seat was a high-beam spotlight and a hunting knife.

[redacted] could not see if Cooper had a firearm, but during the course of their conversation, Cooper seemed to blade his body in such a way that any sidearm would not have been visible.

Cooper asked [redacted] many questions about who he was, where he was from, and what he was doing. [redacted] explained that he was the [redacted] and he did his best to placate Cooper, who was clearly uneasy. Cooper went on to say that he was affiliated with a "freedom" group. (Cooper did not use the term "militia".) During the course of this conversation, Cooper said that there are over a million of "them" (presumably militia members), and that there could be a civil war. [redacted] had the impression that Cooper was actually trying to convert him or persuade him of his cause. [redacted] said that this sort of talk made him feel very uncomfortable, and he just wanted to leave the area.

When [redacted] arrived at the door, Cooper came to meet him, and [redacted] could see the two large brown eyes of a Rottweiler dog inside the house. [redacted] also saw a

Not only did he return [redacted] his videotape, but he also gave him a copy of his book, which is entitled, "Oklahoma City: Day One".

Cooper was apologetic about the confrontation he had with [redacted] the day before, and he also made a remark that puzzled [redacted] Cooper said, "I hear they're going to let you go at [redacted] Cooper went on to elaborate that he had contacts in town, and these people had told him that [redacted] in his role as [redacted] had apparently angered some of the prominent residents in town.

Chief West explained that he has heard a rumor to the effect that Cooper occasionally is visiting [redacted] who now resides in Snowflake. Chief West said that he could not vouch for the reliability or veracity of this rumor.

b6

Following the visit with Chief West, SA [redacted] visited the Post Office in the town of Eagar and there he spoke to [redacted] that Postal facility. [redacted] has been employed with the U.S. Postal Service for about nine years. [redacted] confirmed that her office [redacted]

b6
b7C

Following the visit to the Post Office, SA [redacted] spoke to Chief Scott Garms of the Eagar Police Department. Chief Garms advised that Bill Cooper and [redacted] have not been causing any problems in Eagar, and the Chief is not aware of any recent confrontations between Cooper and other citizens, at least not since since an incident at the start of the new year involving [redacted]

b6
b7C

The Chief remarked that Bill Cooper, because of his silent and unobtrusive presence in town, causes him a lot less of a problem than some other citizens in town do. Chief Garms said that he would contact the Lakeside Resident Agency in the event that Cooper is spotted in town or has any more confrontations near his home.

When asked what could be done to get Cooper to stand before a federal judge in response to the tax charges, [redacted] said he really couldn't think of a good option. After much thought, he said that it might be possible to contact the radio sponsors of Cooper's program and have them encourage Cooper to meet with a representative of the federal government on neutral ground. Perhaps that representative could persuade Cooper to show up in court without having him arrested and compelled to appear before the judge. Nevertheless, [redacted] did not express much optimism for the viability of this plan.

[redacted] advised that Cooper has several firearms in his residence, including a 9mm Taurus pistol, an SKS rifle, a Maverick 12-gauge shotgun, and a .375 H&H hunting rifle.

[redacted] was asked if Cooper also has access to a .50 caliber sniper rifle, and [redacted] responded that if Cooper has such a weapon, he acquired it after [redacted] and Cooper parted company.

Synopsis: To provide background on an interview conducted with [redacted] on 04/08/1999.

Enclosures: Enclosed is a copy of an FD-302 concerning an interview with [redacted]

Details: On 04/08/1999, the Lakeside Resident Agent (SA [redacted]) decided to pay a visit to [redacted] an alleged "hardcore" militia member, who presently resides in the town of [redacted] Arizona. There were several reasons for the decision to interview [redacted]. First of all, [redacted] of Bill Cooper, the fugitive tax protestor who continues to resist federal arrest. SA [redacted] thought that [redacted] might be able to provide some insight into Cooper's personality.

Second, by means of an EC dated 05/28/1998, SA [redacted] set out a lead to Lakeside to further identify [redacted]. While SA [redacted] has previously responded to several leads set out in the above-captioned case [redacted], SA [redacted] figured that much could be learned about [redacted] from direct contact in an interview.

Finally, on 04/07/1999, a reliable source advised SA [redacted] that about a month ago, an Hispanic man, Humberto Morales, was killed in a vehicle accident in the town of St. Johns, Arizona. There have been rumors circulating among Morales' family to the effect that Humberto's death was caused by [redacted]. Allegedly, [redacted] had been [redacted] for some time because of his [redacted]. Supposedly, [redacted] while SA [redacted] did not intend to question [redacted] directly about [redacted]. In order to conduct the interview, SA [redacted] appeared at [redacted] unannounced, and there he was greeted by [redacted] who said that [redacted] was away. When SA [redacted] explained his purpose, which he said was to discuss the situation with Bill Cooper, [redacted] called [redacted] who soon returned to [redacted] for the interview. [redacted] who is a police officer in [redacted] Arizona, and [redacted] were present at various times during the interview.

b7C

It should be noted that [redacted] were polite, talkative, and friendly during the course of the interview. This came as a surprise to SA [redacted] because since being assigned to the Lakeside RA, the Agent has heard many negative things about [redacted]. Frankly, SA [redacted] expected [redacted] to gruffly or profanely decline an interview or to answer questions in a very terse and hostile manner. This was not the case.

b6
b7C

[redacted] spoke in a fairly open manner, and sometimes he was even quite witty. SA [redacted] especially appreciated his comment that if he [redacted] had a chance, he would take Cooper's wooden leg and beat him up with it. (Cooper lost one of his legs in an accident several years ago.)

Facts of complaint

Complainant appeared at the Tucson Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to report what he believes to be a militia group organized and operating in the Springerville, Arizona area.

Complainant stated he has lived in the Springerville, Arizona area for approximately [Redacted] Eager, Arizona. however, complainant indicates his post office address is [Redacted] Springerville, AZ 85938.

Complainant stated that an individual, who may be William Coop (phonetic), known to him only through broadcasts from a small radio station located next to the local radio station, has previously been on the air talking about citizens' right to bear arms. Complainant indicated that this radio station is found at 101 FM on the dial, however, it is difficult to locate. Complainant stated this station refers to itself as the Voice of Freedom. Complainant further stated that this station broadcast statements subsequent to the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City, OK, which indicated that two men involved with the bombing were at a [Redacted] in [Redacted] Arizona two months prior to the bombing. Complainant could provide no address or further information about this radio station.

Complainant was very vague concerning information provided, and was unable to provide names of militia members, or specific incidences involving this militia group, including any meeting places, or training facilities.

Complainant stated that in 1993, while working at the [redacted] in Eager, Arizona, someone from this militia group placed poison in his lunch and he became seriously ill. Complainant indicated he was treated with antibiotics in Tucson, Arizona. Complainant also stated that in the spring of 1997, while at work, an individual by the name of [redacted] LNU (last name unknown), gave him candy which made him ill for three months. Complainant stated that subsequent to this incident, while attending a card game, he was drugged. Complainant indicated that many of his buddies are part of this, and he can no longer go to a restaurant to eat with them because when he does, he becomes ill. Complainant could not provide the names of any of these individuals. Complainant stated he believes local law enforcement personnel may be a part of the militia and some of these individuals have military backgrounds and are capable of being very dangerous. Complainant believes he is being targeted by these individuals because he is not a member of the group.

b6

Complainant believes these people are dangerous because they are paranoid and he has heard they are concerned about a national calamity occurring. He stated he has heard they will blow up bridges and secure the area to prevent anyone else from entering, in the event of any calamity.

Complainant further indicated [redacted] is married to [redacted] one of the militia men. He believes [redacted] is involved in drugs and drug trafficking because complainant's [redacted] Complainant's [redacted] and [redacted] reside in [redacted] Arizona.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] at Lakeside, Arizona:

b6
b7C

On May 12, 1999, SA [redacted] received a fax from the Eagar Police Department concerning a phone call made by [redacted] of the fugitive Bill Cooper. [redacted] called the Eagar Police Department to indicate that he had received a disturbing e-mail message from [redacted] in which Bill Cooper said that [redacted] had left the country so they wouldn't be killed. Bill also told his father through e-mail that the government was going to try and arrest him, and he will not be taken alive.

On May 13, 1999, SA [redacted] attempted to call [redacted] who lives in [redacted] Texas. His telephone number is [redacted] did not answer the phone, but SA [redacted] left a voice mail message requesting that he call.

b6
b7C

On May 14, 1999, SA [redacted] returned to the Lakeside Resident Agency and retrieved a voice mail message from [redacted] SA [redacted] then called [redacted] at his residence in [redacted] and [redacted] provided the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] confirmed that he is [redacted] of Bill Cooper, whom he refers to by the nickname [redacted] explained that while serving in the Air Force as a pilot, he acquired the nickname [redacted] As Bill was growing up, he was typically referred to as [redacted] Both [redacted] and [redacted] Bill Cooper share the same [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that [redacted] left [redacted] when he was 18 years of age. Even then, Bill was having problems, but [redacted] did not elaborate on what these problems were. He did explain, however, that at the age of 17, Cooper wanted to marry a Japanese girl, but [redacted] resisted this. About a year later, Cooper tried to marry another Asian girl whom he had met while serving at Tinker Air Force Base.

b6
b7C

Over the years Cooper has been married to or has lived with about nine different women. [redacted] is acquainted with Cooper's [redacted] does not believe that [redacted] would leave Bill, and she is quite devoted to him. In a recent e-mail message, which [redacted] described as disturbing, Cooper told [redacted] that [redacted] had gone out of the country. [redacted] does not believe this statement. Although [redacted] has received several e-mail messages of a disturbing nature from [redacted] has chosen not to respond, and he advised that he and his wife don't know what to do about [redacted]

b6

b6
b7C

During the course of this telephone conversation, SA [redacted] explained to [redacted] the situation regarding [redacted] and the fact that Bill Cooper is considered a federal fugitive. [redacted] confirmed that [redacted] has an alcohol abuse problem, and [redacted] is quite convinced that [redacted] is mentally unstable. During the conversation, [redacted] was asked if he or any other family member might be in a position to reason with Bill, but [redacted] said that he could think of no one, either inside or outside the family who could talk sense into Bill. In fact, [redacted] said that any approach by a family member was likely to make Cooper angry and even more unstable.

[redacted] could not offer any suggestions as to how to deal with [redacted]. He said that Bill has been separated from all of the family members for a long time.

b7C

During the course of the conversation, SA [redacted] asked if [redacted] was familiar with the circumstances involving a motorcycle accident which caused Bill to lose his foot. [redacted] explained that the incident took place near Palo Alto, California when Bill came too fast around a corner and then had to brake to avoid a truck that was there. The result was that Cooper caught his foot in the rear bumper of a pickup truck, and Bill's foot was severed. Bill Cooper was then treated and cared for at the Stanford University Hospital in Palo Alto. The doctors there attempted several times to re-attach Bill's foot, but they were unsuccessful.

b6
b7C

When told that [redacted] claims to have been the victim of a CIA assassination plot, [redacted] replied that [redacted] often comes up with wild explanations for things, and he is not mentally stable.

b6
b7C

At the conclusion of the conversation, [redacted] indicated that he would contact SA [redacted] if he should receive any information or e-mail messages that might indicate that Bill is in a state of crisis.

Dear Mr. Gonzalez:

As you may be aware, the above-named individuals were indicted for federal income tax evasion in June of 1998. Since that time a task force, including representatives of the FBI, has met regularly to discuss efforts to arrest and detain Cooper [redacted]. Because they are involved with the militia movement, because Cooper has threatened violence if the government attempts to arrest him, and because he is believed to control substantial firepower and to have the potential to cause significant harm if the government attempts to arrest him, we believe that the F.B.I. should play an active role in the effort to arrest and detain Cooper [redacted] pursuant to the outstanding warrants for their arrest.

Synopsis: To provide status update on this case.

Details: On 07/28/99 SA [redacted] was advised by SA [redacted] of IRS of new developments in captioned case. It appears that [redacted] Cooper's [redacted] left her residence in Eagar about three months ago. She took [redacted] with her. She has been living in the Los Angeles area, and her whereabouts were just ascertained recently when [redacted]

b6
b7C

Since the "discovery" of [redacted] in California, she has retained an attorney, and AUSA [redacted] has made contact with this attorney. It appears that [redacted] will come to Phoenix voluntarily for an arraignment in the near future. Although [redacted] could have been arrested by local police officers on the pending federal warrant, AUSA [redacted] directed the California officers not to execute the warrant. In all likelihood the warrant will be quashed in the near future. AUSA [redacted] would prefer not to pursue any charges against [redacted] until [redacted] has been apprehended.

b6
b7C

Soon an attempt will be made to de-brief [redacted] concerning [redacted] daily routine, activities, travels, etc. She will also be de-briefed concerning Bill's financial dealings with regard to the pending charges of income tax evasion.

Re: 62E-PX-62617, 07/29/1999

At this point, it appears that [] will receive favorable treatment from the prosecutor and the court if she assists investigators. The fact that she is represented by an attorney may actually be beneficial inasmuch as her lawyer may dampen the paranoia she is likely to feel towards representatives of the federal government.

b6
b7C

The Phoenix Division case agent (SA []) intends to participate in the de-briefing of [] when she returns to Arizona. The fact that [] may allow for more and better options to apprehend Bill, while minimizing risks to federal agents, Cooper's associates, and Cooper himself. An inter-agency meeting will probably be scheduled very soon. This meeting will likely include the Phoenix Division, IRS, the US Marshals, and the US Attorney's Office.

Michael is Michael Pardo an atheist homosexual who runs a website called Universal Way. He is a mental case. I forced his discharge from the Second Continental Army on mental incompatibility grounds. Needless to say he hates my guts.

I do not smoke... anything.

Michael Pardo is a liar.... and he sucks, literally.

Annie, Pooh, and Allyson did not leave in April they left in mid March when I made them pack, put them in the car, and forced them to leave. Doyel was here and helped. It was the hardest thing I have ever done. If anyone wants confirmation have them call Doyel Shamley at 520-333-4578. Since he works full time with a lot of overtime the best time to get him is at about 7:55 AM mountain standard time.

And yes I did deceive everyone simply by not telling anyone they had left in order to give them a really good head start. I did not ever lie to anyone but just simply did not tell anyone... and I felt bad about it. However their lives and Freedom depended upon having at least two or three months in which to accomplish their journey. They are no longer in this country.

Please post this to the newsgroup where you found this nasty worms lies.

The following investigation was conducted by SA []
[] at Lakeside, Arizona on 7/29/99:

SA [] received a call from [] who sometimes calls from Houston regarding his concerns about Bill Cooper. [] advised that Cooper's family is probably no longer in Eagar with Bill, and they may have even left the country. [] bases this assessment on statements Copper has made on his short wave radio program or through the Internet. For example, just last night Cooper told radio listeners that he is now maintaining two households. A few weeks ago he said that [] [] are no longer with him.

b6
b7C

Cooper's short wave broadcast on station WBCQ has now been cut back to one hour, four days a week (Monday through Thursday.)

Recently, Cooper was the subject of Internet speculation by a writer named [] who goes by the Internet address of [] suggested that Cooper's family is no longer with him in Arizona.

Details: In July 1998 federal bench warrants were issued for Bill Cooper and [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] refused to show up in court in response to charges of income tax evasion. In June 1998 a deputy US Marshal arrived at Cooper's residence in Eagar, Arizona with the intent of serving Cooper with a criminal summons. Cooper refused to receive the summons, and he ordered the deputy marshal off of his property. Regrettably, the federal officer had not been advised of Cooper's background before attempting to serve the summons.

Bill Cooper is well known in right wing militia circles. He publishes a periodical newspaper called "Veritas", he has published a couple of books, and he is the host of a talk show which is broadcast throughout the nation by means of short wave radio. Cooper also maintains an Internet website at www.harvest-trust.org. Through his writing and radio talk show

Cooper frequently vilifies the federal government in general, and the FBI, ATF and IRS in particular.

Since the bench warrants were issued, Cooper has threatened to kill any federal agent who attempts to apprehend him or approach his property. For example, on the Internet he has written: "Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute these unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to [redacted] will be shot on sight." (Cooper [redacted])

Given this mind set and the fact Cooper resides in a veritable fortress on a high ridge overlooking the otherwise peaceful town of Eagar, the involved federal agencies (IRS, US Marshals, Phoenix Division, and US Attorney's Office in Phoenix) have been in no hurry to bring Cooper into custody. Indeed, during the past 13 months Cooper has been in veritable state of house arrest, and he is probably irritated by the fact that the federal government has not "honored him" with a Waco-like siege.

Although Cooper probably leaves his residence on an infrequent basis, he is dependent upon others, most notably an admirer named [redacted] to bring him food, supplies, mail, etc. To date, no attempts have been made to disrupt Cooper's access to food and supplies, nor has any attempt been made to cut off his utility service. Thus far, the strategy for dealing with Cooper has been to ignore him and let him relax until he feels secure enough to start venturing into town.

Two employees of the United Parcel Service (UPS) were interviewed at their place of employment. Both employees asked for complete anonymity, and therefore their names will not be written in this report. The following information was provided:

UPS makes frequent pick-ups at the home of Bill Cooper on Clearview Circle in the town of Eagar, Arizona. Recently, Bill Cooper requested that the UPS driver call him before coming up to his residence. Allegedly, this is because Cooper is sending out fewer items than he used to. Previously, the UPS driver went to Cooper's house on a daily basis to pick up items being sent out by the Coopers.

About once every week or two, Cooper also receives shipments through UPS. Often times these packages consist of heavy objects weighing over 70 pounds. Supposedly, some of these packages are related to equipment Cooper needs to set up a television studio. The packages that Cooper sends out through UPS are usually small, normally in boxes about 8" x 8" x 12".

Cooper was last seen at his residence yesterday (September 22, 1999). [redacted] were last seen at least a month and a half ago.

b6
b7C

When making deliveries at Cooper's home, the UPS driver parks close to the front of Cooper's residence, and Cooper emerges with a package to deliver. Two dogs are chained outside, one, the Rottweiler named "Crusher" is chained to the right (east) of the house, while the other dog is described which as a "mutt", is chained on the left side (west). The UPS driver has to be careful to stay out of reach of the dogs which are restricted by chains. On one occasion two or three years ago, the smaller dog whose name is "Sugar Bear", broke off his leash and bit the UPS driver on his boot.

Cooper has been receiving UPS deliveries at his home for several years. Since arrest warrants were issued over a year ago, UPS employees have not seen Cooper away from his residence, but his late model green Chevy truck has been missing on a couple of occasions. Apparently, [redacted] has taken the

Some months ago a UPS employee, who is not the regular driver for that route, showed up to make a delivery with a new driver. Because of the presence of two drivers, [redacted] came out and confronted the driver about the presence of more than one employee. At the same time, Bill Cooper circled around the outside of the house and watched suspiciously from a distance.

b6
b7C

Most deliveries made to the Cooper residence are made in Bill Cooper's name or Harvest Trust. Before coming up to make pick-ups, the UPS driver calls Cooper at his home telephone, (520)333-4543, and asks if there is anything to pick up. Most pick-ups take place between 11:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Allegedly, a woman named [REDACTED] was on a radio program one day, and [REDACTED] listened carefully to what she had to say. Apparently, he was so moved by her statements that he began his own examination into the legalities of the tax code. [REDACTED] is said to be a well-known tax protester and a vocal opponent of the Federal Reserve Board.

According to [REDACTED] has set up his own Website, he appears to be making a living by railing against the constitutionality of federal taxes.

According to [REDACTED] sometime ago Cooper had on his radio program some local sheriff's deputies who claimed that the killing of [REDACTED] back in the late 1970's was part of a federal conspiracy. Allegedly, federal marshals were killed because they knew too much about what had happened in this case.

[REDACTED] also mentioned a conversation he heard on Cooper's radio program when a caller asked Cooper why he lives in such a "barren area." Cooper's response was that if he lived in a big city he would probably be dead because he couldn't protect himself.

SA [] received a phone call from [] a Criminal Investigator with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). SA [] advised that he checked the Internet website of Bill Cooper earlier that morning, and he found a "hit" for a daily update, dated May 11 through May 25. In this update, Cooper wrote that he had gotten his television station on the air, and he is broadcasting under the name of "Round Valley Television 15." According to [] Cooper's website address is: HTTV:\\williamcooper.com.

After receiving this information from SA [] SA [] called Scott Garms, the Police Chief of the town of Eagar, Arizona. Chief Garms advised that very few people in Round Valley receive television transmissions by antenna. Instead, most of the local residents utilize cable television or satellite reception services. Chief Garms indicated he would attempt to locate a television with which he could receive a signal broadcast locally to confirm if Cooper's Internet statement is accurate.

Scott Garms, the police chief of the town of Eagar, advised that about a week ago there was an incident on the hilltop in Eagar where the fugitive Bill Cooper lives. At night a local man drove up the hill, and he was accompanied by a woman. Another man, presumably Bill Cooper, drove over and ordered the "intruder" to get off the hill and his property. Bill Cooper could not be positively identified because he was hidden by the headlights of his vehicle.

Later, the "intruder", whose name Garms doesn't recall off hand, filed a complaint with the Eagar Police Department. The man was plainly told of Cooper's fugitive situation and the fact that the town was unlikely to deal with Cooper until federal agents got around to apprehending him for more serious offenses. Garms said he would forward a copy of the incident report to the Lakeside RA.

SA [redacted] received a call from [redacted] a trooper [redacted] called because he was upset about a meeting the previous night which included himself, SA [redacted] a U.S. Deputy Marshal, and Sergeant (Sgt.) [redacted] a DPS sergeant and [redacted] [redacted] said that he had nothing to hide concerning his relationship with Bill Cooper, who has been a federal fugitive since July, 1998. [redacted] said that he was particularly upset with the tone taken by [redacted] and he was angry about the way [redacted] had said that he was embarrassed to be in same room as [redacted]

[redacted] stated that in the future he would not make any statements to federal agents concerning Bill Cooper unless he was talking to SA [redacted] alone. Otherwise, [redacted] said that he would only talk to other federal agents if the FBI made a formal request from [redacted] through the regular chain of command. Then, if his agency required him to talk, he would speak to whichever federal agent agreed upon by his department.

During this conversation, [redacted] confirmed again that he has had a few face-to-face visits with Bill Cooper, but he said that it had nothing to do with his duties as [redacted]. He also acknowledged having had previous telephone conversations with Bill Cooper.

During the course of this conversation [redacted] made it clear that he felt insulted when he was formally advised of provisions of the federal harboring statute.

SA [redacted] received a telephone call from [redacted] who is presently a [redacted] the office of County Sheriff in Apache County. During this conversation, [redacted] acknowledged that recently he paid a visit to the home of Bill Cooper, who is a tax protester and federal fugitive residing on a hilltop in the town of Eagar, Arizona. Although [redacted] had misgivings about [redacted] idea, ultimately he decided that a good word from Cooper and his supporters was better than a thousand negative words from Cooper, who hosts a radio program in Eagar. [redacted] explained that a number of people in the community are quite supportive of Cooper, and there are a few school teachers who listen to him regularly and are quite persuaded by his rhetoric.

In any event, [redacted] accompanied by [redacted] paid a visit for a couple of hours at Cooper's home. [redacted] noted that Cooper has a large, violent-looking dog named Crusher at the residence. Inside Cooper's residence, the house looks quite cluttered, and [redacted] described the house as being more or less like a "cow trail." He said that if by the word "patriot" Cooper meant men running around with camouflage clothes, then the sheriff's candidate did not consider himself a patriot. If the term "patriot" referred to people who believed in and upheld the Constitution, then [redacted] considered himself a true patriot.

[REDACTED] The following background information on Cooper and [REDACTED] were discussed at this time:

Both Cooper and [REDACTED] were indicted on 06/10/1998, in Arizona for income tax evasion, and bench warrants were issued for them on 07/01/1998. Cooper is well known among members of the nation's militia groups, and he has stated that he will kill any federal agents who attempt to apprehend him. Cooper has also said that he would rather have his family die than be subjected to "federal tyranny". Following the indictments, Cooper isolated himself and his family in their residence which is located at the end of a long road atop a bluff overlooking Eagar. The house, which is in [REDACTED] name, is situated so that anyone attempting to drive up the road would be easily seen by Cooper.

b7C

The Phoenix FBI had been coordinating with both the U.S. Marshals Service (USMS) as well as the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in their investigations of Cooper. The USMS is responsible for the apprehension of Cooper and the tax investigation was being conducted by the IRS. The Bureau's role at the time of this meeting was to provide a tactical response plan should Cooper resist arrest and resort to violence. FBI case agent SA [REDACTED] was also a primary source of intelligence for all the agencies since neither the USMS or the IRS had agents assigned in that rural area of eastern Arizona.

b6

According to investigators, Cooper does not interact with members of his community, and it is anticipated there would be minimal community support for him should his arrest result in a stand-off.

There were reports of several incidents in which Cooper either threatened or assaulted someone. In one incident, Cooper threatened a former black police chief and appeared to be shielding himself from the officer using [REDACTED]. Reports of friends and acquaintances indicate that Cooper had [REDACTED] on prior occasions. (Subsequent investigation conducted by Phoenix indicates that [REDACTED])

Synopsis: To request technical assistance from Squad 20.

Details: On 9/28/98 a meeting was held at the US Attorney's Office in Phoenix concerning the fugitive status of Bill Cooper and [redacted]. Both have been indicted by IRS on federal tax evasion charges. Cooper has vowed to shoot any federal agents who attempt to arrest him.

Attending this meeting were high level representatives of the US Marshals Service, IRS, US Attorney's Office, and ASAC Ray Churay of the Phoenix Division. Participants were updated on the status of Bill Cooper, who appears to have come out into town recently, an event not anticipated this soon in his self-imposed exile at his hilltop home in the town of Eagar.

During the meeting it was determined that more intelligence was needed on Cooper's activities, but the time was not yet right for deploying a team to conduct surveillance or to arrest him. Instead, it was determined that the Phoenix Division would examine the feasibility of using technical means to monitor Cooper's activities.

Another inter-agency planning meeting will held in the future after more intelligence on Cooper's activities has been gathered and assessed. On 9/29/98 SA [redacted] contacted SA [redacted] in Lakeside and scheduled a site survey to be conducted in Eagar on October 6 and 7.

SA [] called [] a Deputy U.S. Marshal who works in Phoenix, Arizona. SA [] called [] to determine if the U.S. Marshals Service (USMS) intends to take proactive measures to apprehend Bill Cooper, a fugitive now residing in the town in Eagar, Arizona. [] replied that he had submitted a proposal for surveilling Cooper's residence, but [] boss had told him that his agency would not carry out any operations against Bill Cooper until after the new calendar year begins.

During this phone conversation, [] confirmed that Bill Cooper's [] had visited him a few months ago, and the [] had said that a woman was planning to move in with Bill Cooper. Apparently, this woman is Cooper's present girlfriend. Supposedly, Cooper and the woman spent a weekend at the Thunder Horse Ranch, which lies just outside of Lakeside.

b7C

SA [] reminded [] that a visit had been paid by SA [] to the Thunder Horse Ranch a couple of years ago, and [] the ranch should have advised the FBI of Cooper's presence there. [] recommended against taking any action against [] the Thunder Horse Ranch, because any contact now would simply let Cooper know that he was still being watched and monitored. Reluctantly, SA [] agreed with this line of reasoning although he would have liked to have "gotten in the face" of [] of the Thunder Horse Ranch.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] at Eagar, Arizona on August 3, 2001:

SA [REDACTED] contacted Chief B. Scott Grams and Detective (Det.) [REDACTED] of the Eagar Police Department (APD) who had requested a meeting with SA [REDACTED] concerning Bill Cooper.

b6

Recently a local Eagar doctor and his family had driven up a mountainside in order to over look the Eagar valley and spend some time together. Shortly after arriving on the mountainside, Bill Cooper approached the doctor and threatened him that if he didn't depart, Cooper would kill him. Some words were exchanged and the doctor, with his family, departed.

Cooper followed the doctor down the mountainside and back to the doctor's residence, where he once again confronted the doctor. The doctor informed Cooper that he would call the police if Cooper did not leave. At this time, Cooper walked back to his truck and retrieved a pistol, returned to the doctor and pointed it at the head of the doctor telling him if he ever came back, Cooper would kill him. Cooper then departed the area.

It is believed by Chief Grams and Det [REDACTED] that Cooper, at times, places himself in a position where he does not have a firearm in his possession, though close at hand in his vehicle, and is vulnerable to arrest.

Sergeant (Sgt.) [redacted] of the Springerville Office of the Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS) contacted SA [redacted] and stated that on Friday through Saturday, August 3-4, 2001, the DPS Special Operations Unit (SOU) had been called out to assist the Snowflake-Taylor Police Department (STPD) during a barricade situation in [redacted] Arizona. Sgt. [redacted] stated that after negotiations broke down, the SOU fired between 80-100 rounds of CS gas into the residence of [redacted]. Ultimately, [redacted] exited the residence and was taken into custody.

Prior to [redacted] exiting the residence, located at [redacted] [redacted] Arizona, [redacted] fired several rounds from inside the residence. Upon exiting, it was discovered that [redacted] had been injured during the firing of the CS gas into the residence. [redacted] had been struck in the hand by one of the rounds. DPS ultimately transported [redacted] down to Phoenix, Arizona for treatment.

McVeigh listened to militia-inspired Arizona broadcaster

By Mark Shaffer
The Arizona Republic

EAGAR — He lives in the only house atop a high mesa with a bird's-eye view of scenic Round Valley.

Better to broadcast that way and look out for agents of the federal government, say friends of William Cooper, whose apocalyptic, militia-inspired shortwave radio programs attracted Timothy McVeigh as a regular listener in the months before the Oklahoma City bombing.

When McVeigh needed written inspiration, he repeatedly read William Pierce's The Turner Diaries. However, McVeigh is said to have turned his shortwave dial to Cooper's invective for verbal inspiration. James Nichols, brother of Oklahoma bombing co-defendant Terry Nichols, testified about Cooper's broadcasts in 1996 during a pretrial hearing in Oklahoma City.

McVeigh even paid a personal visit to Cooper, who at the time was living and broadcasting 30 miles up the highway in St. Johns, a couple of Tom McCombs, chief deputy marshal for the district of Arizona, did not return phone calls regarding Cooper.

Cooper noted on his Web site that he sent most of his family out of the country in 1999 for "security reasons" and that "they are now safe from Nazi Jack-Booted Thugs."

In more recent entries on his Web site, Cooper says that he was not able to attend his mother's funeral because of a threat from the "Nazi Gestapo" and that federal agents had attempted to coerce his daughter into helping with his apprehension.

"I am prepared and ready for them. I will resist this tyranny even unto death," Cooper posted on his Web site.

Udall said the only way the situation can be handled peacefully is if federal agents will answer Cooper's questions about the government's right to collect taxes.

"Someone is going to die if they go up there with force because Bill carries a handgun on himself at all times," Udall said.

Preliminary Inquiry Instituted: 06/28/2001, set to expire 09/25/2001; extension granted 10/11/2001, set to expire 12/24/2001.

Details: Milton William "Bill" Cooper is a Right Wing "patriot," who was nationally known in the Militia movement for his controversial broadcasts by means of short wave radio. Cooper also maintained a web site wherein he espoused his anti-government rhetoric and threatened to kill any law enforcement officer(s) who attempted to arrest him.

In 1998 was charged by the Internal Revenue Service for failure to pay taxes and an attempt to serve him with a summons resulted in his refusal to accept the summons and his ordering a Deputy United States (U.S.) Marshal off his property. Subsequently, a federal warrant was issued for the arrest of Cooper.

To date, no attempt to arrest Cooper has been made by the U.S. Government for two reasons. First, Cooper had threatened to have a shoot out with anyone attempting to arrest him and he had the means to do so. In addition, Cooper's house sat on a hill top with a 360 degree view of anyone approaching his residence, and second, Cooper had imprisoned himself at his residence where he would not come off the mountainside. The FBI and U.S. Marshal's Service did not wish to cause another Ruby Ridge type of situation and therefore, Cooper's activities were simply monitored pending his departure from his residence and a safe way to effect an arrest.

On numerous occasions, individuals would drive up to a cul-de-sac near Cooper's residence where they would watch the sun set. On each occasion, Cooper would drive down to them and threaten to kill them if they did not depart. Approximately two months ago, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] drove up to the cul-de-sac to observe the sun set. Cooper approached [REDACTED] and ordered them off the mountainside.

b7C

Apparently some words were exchanged and [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] departed and drove home. Cooper followed [REDACTED] to his residence and approached him in his parking lot where an argument ensued with Cooper poking [REDACTED] in the chest with his finger. [REDACTED] grabbed Cooper's finger and bent it back, ordering Cooper off his property or he would call the police. Cooper retreated to his pickup truck and retrieved a semi-automatic pistol which he cocked and pointed at [REDACTED] telling him that if he ever saw him again, Cooper would kill him. This incident was reported to the Eagar Police Department and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Cooper for aggravated assault.

On November 5, 2001, The Apache County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) attempted to arrest Cooper via a rouse. Utilizing a pickup truck with a Lieutenant and female deputy inside and four ACSO SWAT team members in the bed, parked near Cooper's cul-de-sac. An ACSO SWAT van was parked at the base of the hill as backup. Approximately ten-minutes after setting up, Cooper came out of his residence and drove down to the pickup truck where a verbal confrontation ensued, with Cooper ordering them off the hillside. At this point, the four SWAT Team members identified themselves.

Cooper drove away from the scene back to his residence, followed on foot by at least two of the SWAT Team members from the bed of the truck. One ACSO Deputy, [REDACTED] arrived at Cooper's residence just as Cooper was exiting his truck. Cooper fired several rounds from a .357 revolver, striking Deputy Marinas twice in the head. At this point, the second Deputy arrived and fired nine rounds from his service .45, striking Cooper numerous times and killing him.

b7C

Shortly after the shooting, [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] arrived at the residence of [REDACTED] and threatened him that as he was the cause of Cooper being killed, several militia units from California and possibly other places, would be sending individuals who would kill him and the law enforcement agencies involved in this incident. Officers kill militia voice; deputy shot

Broadcaster was wanted man

By Mark Shaffer
The Arizona Republic

EAGAR — One of the country's most influential militia radio broadcasters was killed early Tuesday in a hail of gunfire when law officers tried to arrest him on a warrant accusing him of aggravated assault.

William Milton Cooper, 58, whose apocalyptic, constitutionalist shortwave radio programs were a major influence on Oklahoma City bomber Timothy McVeigh, was shot to death after Cooper shot and critically wounded an Apache County sheriff's deputy who had tried to arrest him, officers said.

The officer, Robert Martinez, 40, was listed in critical condition at St Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix.

Apache County Sheriff Brian Hounshell said Martinez, a former Marine and Persian Gulf War veteran, was shot twice in the head by what was believed to be a .45-caliber pistol. The officer was expected to survive, Hounshell said, after undergoing two hours of surgery Tuesday morning. Martinez's skull was fractured, and surgeons removed bone fragments from near his brain, the sheriff said.

MILITIA Broadcaster is killed

Cooper had been indicted on federal charges of failing to pay taxes from 1992 to 1994 and became a fugitive after failing to appear for a U.S. District Court hearing in Phoenix three years ago.

Scott Garms, Eagar's police chief, said he had urged federal law officers to stay away from Cooper's two-story compound, high on a mesa overlooking Round Valley, because militia group members do not recognize the legitimacy of federal law officers.

"We certainly didn't want to make him a martyr," Garms said.

The police chief said the effort to arrest Cooper became a local law enforcement matter in July after Cooper ordered a local man to leave land that Cooper did not own atop the mesa and then followed the man about two miles to his home. Cooper then pulled a gun and pointed it at the man's face, Garms said. That resulted in a warrant for Cooper's arrest.

Seventeen officers were involved in the operation, which started at 11:40 p.m. Monday, Garms and Hounshell said.

Garms said a group of undercover officers in a pickup truck pretended to be "people just acting normal up there at night" in a ruse to draw Cooper out of his house to adjoining property 200 yards away. But Cooper surprised the officers by driving, not walking, to them, and he never left the vehicle during a verbal altercation.

During that confrontation, a second undercover police vehicle drove to Cooper's property line and blocked the road, Garms said. But on the way back to his house, Cooper drove off the side of the road and tried to run over sheriff's Sgt. Steve Brown, who dived out of the way, Hounshell said.

Cooper then parked his vehicle in front of his house, and Martinez followed him toward his front door while admonishing him to surrender, Hounshell said. Near the door, Cooper turned and fired an undetermined number of rounds at Martinez, who was wearing a bulletproof vest but no helmet, Hounshell said, adding that officers had not seen Cooper's handgun before he fired it.

At that point, another sheriff's deputy who had been at the side of Cooper's home, approached Cooper and opened fire. Hounshell said he did not know where or how many times Cooper was struck, saying a state Department of Public Safety shooting-review team had been dispatched to the site. Hounshell declined to identify the officer.

Cooper had said numerous times on his radio show, Hour of the Time, and posted on his Web site, that he had been under siege by "Nazi jackbooted thugs." He also had solicited donations for what he said was his fight against the U.S. government, which he said was responsible for the 1995 bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City.

"He had vowed that he would not be taken alive," said Tom McCombs, a spokesman for the U.S. Marshal's Service in Phoenix.

Garms said Cooper's radio show had been off the air for about a month because of a shortage of money. But in one of his last programs, Garms said, Cooper had accused the federal government of the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York City.

Glenn Jacobs, a Round Valley newspaper publisher and friend of Cooper, said he didn't think the police operation was unjustified.

"I think Bill just went nuts. He was looking for martyrdom anyway and swore he would never surrender," Jacobs said. "They had him dead to rights on the aggravated assault."

Jacobs also said that if the sheriff's deputies had allowed Cooper to enter his house, "they would have had a blood-bath on their hands."

"He kept an AK-47 just inside his front door by a magazine rack," Jacobs said.

A spokesman for a group that tracks militias said the shooting wasn't surprising given Cooper's history. In addition to his show, he was known within the militia movement for an influential book called Behold a Pale Horse, in which he wrote about global elites and conspiracies.

"For more than 3½ years, he had been holed up in his house in Eagar, threatening to kill police officers and federal agents," said Mark Potok of the Southern Poverty Law Center. "He was talked about as a guy who talked crazy and made a lot of threats. The reality is that people like him are frequently exceedingly dangerous."

James Nichols, brother of Oklahoma bombing co-defendant Terry Nichols, said during a 1996 court proceeding that McVeigh had been a regular listener of Cooper's programs in the months leading up to the Murrah bombing.

Synopsis: Closure of case due to the death of Milton William Cooper.

Details: On Tuesday, November 6, 2001, at approximately 12:15 a.m., Milton William Cooper was killed in a shootout with Apache County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) Deputies at his residence located in Eagar, Arizona.

In 1998, a federal warrant was issued for the arrest of Cooper charging him with Income Tax Evasion. As this warrant was a misdemeanor and due to Cooper's repeated threats of violence and the belief that Cooper's residence had been converted to a fortress, Federal Agents chose not to pursue an arrest of Cooper at his residence.

Cooper self-imposed himself to house arrest for several years. However, on numerous occasions, Cooper would approach individuals who had driven up the hillside where his residence was located and threaten them if they did not depart. Cooper appeared to become more and more unstable and on at least two separate occasions, Cooper threatened individuals with a firearm, including a local doctor whom Cooper followed off the hillside and approached in the doctor's driveway.

Based upon these incidents, an arrest warrant was obtained by the Eagar Police Department. On numerous occasions, Federal Agents recommended against attempting to arrest Cooper at his residence. However, on the evening of Monday, November 5, 2001, a plan was set into motion by members of the Apache County to arrest Cooper near his residence utilizing a ruse.

After the death of Cooper, there was a concern about retaliation from other individuals, in particularly during Cooper's funeral. However, the only individual who was making loud noises concerning Cooper's death is currently on State probation. This individual, [REDACTED] was contacted by his Probation Officer and informed that if he associated with any individuals who had a felony record or was wanted, or if he created problems, his probation would be revoked and he would be taken into custody.

A Command Post was set up at the ACSO Round Valley Substation starting the day prior to Cooper's funeral and extending into the day after the funeral. No incidents were reported by any law enforcement agency and the Command Post was disassembled.

Based upon the death of Cooper, it is requested that this case be closed at this time.

Dear SAC Gonzalez:

The above-named individuals are both presently fugitives for failing to appear in federal court pursuant to an indictment charging them both with tax evasion. Arrest warrants have been issued for both.

Enclosed is a letter from James B. Collie, Chief of the Criminal Investigation Division for the Internal Revenue Service describing Cooper's background and his stated intentions to forcefully resist any government efforts to arrest him [redacted] in connection with these charges. In light of his clearly stated intentions and his apparent ability to carry those out, we are making every effort to proceed cautiously in attempting to effect the arrest of Cooper and [redacted]. To accomplish that goal, we have been meeting informally to plan the best way to proceed.

b6
b7C

Please consider this letter my formal request for your agency to join our office, the IRS and the U.S. Marshal's in a formal task force to safely accomplish this objective. Please feel free to call me or my Criminal Chief, Tom Hannis, if you have any questions concerning this matter. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Cooper &

Dear Mr. Collie:

I am writing in response to your letter describing the formation of an informal task force composed of representatives of this office, your office, the FBI, and the U.S. Marshal's Service for the purpose of sharing intelligence concerning the above-named individuals and formulating a plan for their safe arrest. None of us want another incident like the ones at Waco or Ruby Ridge and we appreciate your concerns. We will contact both the FBI and the U.S. Marshal's and formally request them to assist in this project. Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention.

Sincerely yours,

Offshore Secrets Network!

Trust, International Business Corporation, Offshore Banking, Credit Card, Debit Card, Merchant Account, International Drivers License, Second Passport, Second Citizenship, Mail Drop Service, Bank Charter, Etc.

Did you know that the wealthiest People of the world have most or all of their assets offshore? Did you know that assets held offshore allow you to have more privacy, pay little or no taxes, and increase your wealth more than any other method of asset protection available?

Harvest Trust has arranged for a 10% discount for all of our friends and supporters who are serious about taking themselves or their money offshore.

Offshore Secrets is the cheapest, best, and most professional source of Trusts, offshore business corporations, and financial services. We personally recommend these programs to those who need them.

NOTE!! If you purchase any product from Offshore Secrets be sure and select the following AGENT ID# at the bottom of the Offshore Secrets Order Page in order to claim your 10% discount.

OSN9905WC

If you fail to select the above AGENT ID# at the bottom of the Offshore Secrets Order form you will NOT get a discount. You will pay full price.

These programs are for serious People that for personal reasons need to take themselves and/or their assets offshore. These excellent programs cost money, make no mistake about it, but are more professional and much cheaper than most all other sources. The personal, financial, tax, residency, banking, and privacy benefits derived are worth a hundred times, maybe even a thousand times, the cost of these excellent programs. Applied properly, and within the law, these programs might save you tens of thousands or maybe even millions of dollars over the next few years.
